MEDICAL.

MANHOOD.
How Lost, How Restored.

Just Published, in a Sealed Envelop,
ON THE NATURE, TREATMENT, AND RADICAL CURE OF SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, Nervousness, and Involuntary Emissions, inducing Impotency and Mental and Physical Incapacity.

By ROB. J. CULVERWELL, M. D.
Author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-abuse may be effectually removed without medicine and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically. This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

Sent under seal to any address, post paid, on the receipt of two postage stamps, by addressing Dr. CH. J. C. KLINE, M. D., 127 Bowery, New York, Post Box 4,586.

THE
WORTHY OF ANY CONFIDENCE
FOR
THE BALD AND GRAY.

MANY, since the great discovery of Prof. Wood, have attempted not only to imitate his restorative, but profess to have discovered something that would produce results identical; but they have all come and gone, being carried away by the wonderful results of Prof. Wood's preparation, and have been forced to leave the field to its resistless sway. Read the following:

BATH, Maine, April 18th, 1859.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & Co., Gents: The letter I wrote you in 1858 concerning your valuable Hair Restorative, and which you have published in this vicinity and elsewhere, has given rise to numerous inquiries touching the facts in the case. The inquiries are, first, is it a fact of my habitation and name, as stated in the communication; second, Is it true of all therein contained; third, does my hair still continue to be in good order and of natural color? To all I can and do answer invariably yes. My hair is even better than in any stage of my life for 40 years past, more soft, thrifty, and better colored; the same is true of my whiskers, and the only cause why it is not generally true is that the substance is washed off by frequent ablution of the face, when if care were used by wiping the face in close connection with the whiskers, the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the receipt of a great number of letters from all parts of New England, asking me if my hair still continues to be good; as there is so much fraud in the manufacture and sale of various compounds as well as this, it has no doubt been basely imitated and been used, not only without any good effect, but to absolute injury. I have not used any of your Restorative of any account for some months, and yet my hair is as good as ever, and hundreds have examined it with surprise, as I am now 61 years old and not a gray hair in my head or on my face; and to prove this fact, I send you a lock of my hair taken off the past week. I received your favor of two quart bottles last summer, for which I am very grateful. I gave it to my friends and thereby induced them to try it; many were skeptical until after trial, and then purchased and used it with universal success. I will ask you as a favor that you send me a test by which I can discover fraud in the Restorative, sold by many, I fear, without authority from you. A pure article will insure success, and I believe where good effects do not follow, the failure is caused by the impure article which curses the inventor of the good. I deem it my duty, as heretofore, to keep you apprised of the continued effect on my hair, as I assure all who inquire of me of my unshaken opinion of its valuable results. I remain, dear sir, yours,
A. C. RAYMOND.

AARON'S RUN, Ky., Nov. 30, 1858.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir—I would certainly be doing you a great injustice not to make known to the world the wonderful as well as the unexpected result I have experienced from using ONE bottle of your Hair Restorative. After using every kind of Restorative extant, but without success, and finding my head nearly destitute of hair, I was finally induced to try a bottle of your Hair Restorative. Now, candor and justice compel me to announce to whoever may read this that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, which I pronounce richer and handsomer than the original was. I will therefore take occasion to recommend this invaluable remedy to ALL who may feel the necessity of it.

Respectfully yours, REV. S. ALLEN BROCK.

P. S.—This testimonial of my approbation for your valuable medicine (as you are aware of) is unsolicited—but if you think it worthy a place among the rest, insert if you wish; if not, destroy and say nothing.

Yours, &c., Rev. S. A. B.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint and retails for $1 per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retail for $2 per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retail for $3 a bottle.

MEDICAL.

The Early Physical Degeneracy
OF

JUST PUBLISHED BY DR. STONE,
Physician to the Troy Lung and Hygienic Institute,

A Treatise on the Causes of Early Physical Decline of American People; the Cause of Nervous Debility, Consumption, and Marasmus.

☞ This work is of a high moral tone, written in chaste yet thrilling language, and appeals directly to the moral consciousness of ALL, PARENTS and GUARDIANS especially, detailing scientific and reliable aids and treatment for cure.

It will be sent by mail on receipt of two 3-cent stamps.

A Word of Solemn Conscientious Advice to those who will Reflect.

A class of maladies prevail to a fearful extent in community dooming at least 100,000 youth of both sexes annually to an early grave. Those diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestations or symptoms are Nervous Debility, Relaxation, and Exhaustion; Marasmus or wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing or hurried breathing on ascending a hill or a flight of stairs, great palpitation of the Heart; Asthma, Bronchitis, and sore Throat; shaking of the Hands and Limbs; aversion to society and to business or study; dimness of Eyesight; loss of Memory; dizziness of the Head, Neuralgic Pains in various parts of the body; Pains in the Back or Limbs; Lumbago, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion; irregularity of the Bowels; deranged sections of the Kidneys and other glands of the body, as Leucorrhœa or Fleur Albus, &c. likewise Epilepsy, Hysteria, and Nervous Spasms.

Now, in ninety-nine cases out of every one hundred all the above-named disorders, and a host of others not named, as Consumption of the Lungs, and the most insidious and wily form of Consumption of the Spinal Nerves known as Tabes Dorsales, and Tabes mesenterica, have their seat and origin in diseases of Pelvic Viscera. Hence the want of success on the part of old school practice in treating symptoms only.

Dr. Andrew Stone, Physician to the Troy Lung and Hygienic Institution, is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new; it is based upon scientific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. The facilities of cure are such that patients can be cured at their homes, in any part of the country, from accurate description of their case, by letter, and have the medicines sent them by mail or express. Printed interrogatories will be forwarded on application.

☞ Patients applying for interrogatories or advice must enclose return stamps to meet attention.

☞ The attending physician will be found at the Institution for consultation, from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. of each day. Sundays in the forenoon.

MEDICAL.

EVERY FAMILY SHOULD HAVE A HYDRO MAGNETIC SIPHO, for the prevention and cure of all diseases of the Urinary and Sexual organs, the Kidneys, Stomach, and Bowels, and prevention of conception. This Sipho when used, prevents and cures Nervous Debility, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Prolapsus Uteri or Falling of the Womb, Obstructed Menstruation, and all complaints of the Urinal Organs, Kidneys, and bowels.

The Sipho enables all to prevent and cure disease, without recourse to drugs, herbs, pills, or nostrums. It is perfectly safe; it will last a lifetime without getting out of order, and never fails; it is simple, and can be used by a child. It acts magnetically and chemically, removing, absorbing, and destroying all morbid secretions and poisonous matter in the system. It is pleasant to use, imparts strength and life to the body, enlivens the spirits, imparts cheerfulness to the mind, and gives a tone and elasticity to all who use it, that will last for years. It enables those whose health and circumstances do not permit an increase of family, to regulate or limit their offspring, but must not be used during pregnancy, as it would produce miscarriage.

We send with each Sipho important private and confidential information for the Married and those contemplating marriage; also, full directions for its use.

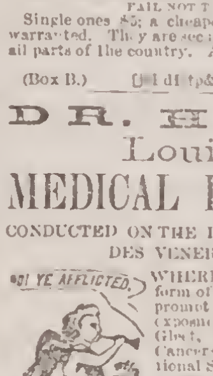
MEDICAL INFIRMARY,
CONDUCTED ON THE PLAN OF THE HOSPITAL DES VENERIENS, PARIS,



WHERE those afflicted with any form of Private Disease can receive prompt treatment without risk of exposure, viz: Syphilis, Gonorrhea, Gleet, Strictures, Ulcers, Tumors, Cancers, Secondary, and Constitutional Syphilis, Diseases of the Kidneys, etc. By this system it is proved that the venerial complaint is as entirely under the control of medicine as is a common cold or simple fever and, while insufficient persons are daily sending away their patients in hopelessness, and giving them up only from their own incompetency, complete and permanent cures are constantly being effected at this infirmary.

YOUNG MEN, TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.—Dr. H. devotes much of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret habit which ruins both body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for either business or society. The sad effect of these early habits, or the excess of riper years, are to weaken and debilitate the constitution, destroy the physical and mental powers, diminish and enfeeble the natural feelings, and exhaust the vital energies of manhood; the pleasures of life are marred, the object of marriage frustrated, and existence itself rendered a term of unceasing misery and regret. Such persons, especially those contemplating marriage, should lose no time in making immediate application, as Dr. H., by his new treatment, is enabled to insure a speedy and permanent cure.

DR. HALL'S AMERICAN PERIODICAL PILLS.—No article of medicine intended for the exclusive use of females has ever yet been introduced that has given such universal satisfaction as the American Periodical Pills. They can be relied on in all cases of Menstrual Obstructions, Irregularities, &c., as a sure and safe remedy. Price, per mail, $1 and one postage stamp.

Patients living at a distance can be cured at home by sending a description of their disease and inclosing a stamp.

TRUE OIL.

BIG ISLAND, Bedford, Va., Nov. 1, 1854.

MESSRS. DOVE & CO.—Gentlemen: I used about one-fourth of a bottle of your Turf Oil upon the back of my horse, the worst back I almost ever saw, entirely raw, a place nearly as large as my hand, and this single application (I only applied it once) cured it up entirely and permanently. I really was surprised at the quickness of its curative properties, and I think it more prompt and efficacious than anything of the kind I ever saw, and I have sold thousands of bottles of other preparations for similar purposes.
Respectfully, P. BONDURANT.

SURRY COUNTY, VA., January, 1858.

GENTLEMEN: My old man, Billy, about 70 years of age while hewing sills with a broadaxe, split the calf of the leg open down to the bone, about 3 or 4 inches long, cutting an artery. It bled profusely for two days, and continued to bleed until cold and stiff. I had to give him hot brandy. I could not sew it up, but just saturated a piece of linen with your Turf Oil and laid it on the cut. I did not expect him, on account of his age, ever to be able to work again. I continued to dress the wound two or three weeks with the Turf Oil. In six weeks the cut was entirely well, and he was at work again.
Very respectfully, W. CLAIBORNE JONES.

ON the Infirmities of youth and maturity, disclosing the secret follies of both sexes of all ages, causing debility, nervousness, depression of spirits, palpitation of the heart, suicidal imaginations, involuntary blushings, defective memory, indigestion, and lassitude, &c., comprising 250 pages, and illustrated with upwards of one hundred and thirty engravings. It is a truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertain secret doubts of their physical condition, and who are conscious of having hazarded the health, happiness, and privileges to which every human being is entitled. With Confessions of a boarding School Miss, a College Student, and a Young Married Lady, full of romance and thrilling interest.

Young men who are troubled with weakness, generally caused by a bad habit in youth, the effects of which are dizziness, pains, forgetfulness, sometimes a ringing in the ears, weak eyes, weakness of the back and lower extremities, confusion of ideas, loss of memory, with melancholy, may be cured by the author's NEW PARIS AND LONDON TREATMENT.

We have for the greater part of the past year, devoted our time in VISITING THE EUROPEAN HOSPITALS, availing ourselves of the knowledge and researches of the most skilled Physicians and Surgeons in Europe and on the Continent—such men as CIVIALE, LENOIRE, RICORD, BRECHETEAU, ACTON, and CURLINGS, of the French and English hospitals. Our tour extended through France, Italy, Germany, Holland, England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales, visiting in our route the principal hospitals in Paris, London, Rome, Venice, Vienna, Dresden, Berlin, &c., &c. We have been amply repaid by the additional knowledge we have acquired in the treatment of various diseases to which we have directed our attention. Those who place themselves under our care will now have the full benefit of the many NEW AND EFFICIENT REMEDIES which we are enabled to introduce into our practice, and the public may rest assured of the same zeal, assiduity, SECRECY, and attention being paid to their cases, which has so successfully distinguished us heretofore as a Physician in our PECULIAR department of professional practice.

Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the United States or Canadas, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. Business correspondence strictly confidential.

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Wednesday, Feb. 27.—Charles Miller, stealing pants, bedding thing, &c from Mr. Cornwall. Continued until to-morrow.

Theodore Warner, larceny. Bail in $600 to answer in the Criminal Court.

Jerry and Mary Kochler, drunk and disorderly. Bail of each in $100 for one month.

James Bowman, drunk and disorderly. Bail in $100 for two months.

H. H. McManus and Alice McDonald, the former for carrying concealed weapons and having counterfeit money in his possession, and the latter as a suspected felon. Continued until Friday.

Wm. J. Young, a free negro from Indiana, remaining in the State contrary to law. Committed in default of $300 bail to answer in the Criminal Court.

George Perkins, assault on John Weston. Bail of each in $100 to answer a misdemeanor.

George Perkins, arraigned on a peace warrant by B. Weston. Own bond in $200 for six months.

REVENGEFUL ATTACK.—About a year ago Thomas B. Mynatt, a deputy sheriff, shot and killed, upon slight provocation, an old and respectable citizen of Memphis named James L. Webb. The murderer has been in prison since the occurrence, until Friday last, when he was admitted to bail, having obtained a change of venue. He returned to Memphis on Saturday last, and while walking the streets with some friends, was shot by Morris Webb, a brother of deceased, and John L. Webb, a son of the gentleman killed by Mynatt. Mynatt's wounds, it is thought, will prove fatal. The younger Webb surrendered himself, while the other was not arrested.

A PLAY WITH A REAL HERO.—They have a play in the Crescent City called The Battle of New Orleans. It was performed one night last week at the St. Charles theatre, the drummer on the occasion being Old Jordan, who beat the drum and helped make the music to which General Jackson and his gallant troops won the battle on the field of Chalmette, forty-six years ago. Old Jordan still lives in New Orleans, and gives the people there a touch of his drumming regularly every year on the 8th of January.

☞ The Washington Star states that on Friday afternoon the Adams Express agents delivered to Hon. J. Holt, Secretary of War, a small box, consigned at Kingsville, South Carolina. Its sides were pierced with holes. Not knowing from whom it came or what its contents were, Mr. Holt declined receiving it. It was opened at the Express office, and on top were most beautiful flowers. What may be beneath them is not known—possibly some explosive material or other that will ignite whenever the flowers may be disturbed.

DEFALCATION.—George M. Hiss, Treasurer of the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Baltimore county, Md., has absconded with between nine and ten thousand dollars of stocks and money belonging to the company. The entire amount is not yet ascertained. Investigations are being made by the board of directors. He is indebted to gentlemen of Baltimore county for money loaned to a very large amount.

☞ "Is it there ye are, old Truepenny?" asks the Washington Star, on seeing the announcement that Mr. Philip C. Clayton had been elected Assistant Secretary of the Treasury of the C. S. A. This appointment, and the probability that Yancey, Keitt, and Slidell will go to Europe, the Star thinks an illustration of the way in which old rats ensconce themselves in new cheese.

RETURN OF TROOPS FROM PENSACOLA.—The Mobile papers of Saturday morning announced the return of five companies of Alabama troops, numbering upwards of 200 men, from Fort Barrancas, near Pensacola. They were received with a salute, and immediately took passage up the river to their respective homes.

THE CANADIAN BANK-SWINDLE.—The sale of the effects of R. E. Church, the absconding cashier of the Bank of Upper Canada, produced $20,000; his estate will not pay more than five cents on the dollar. Among other victims of his swindling, is the church, of which he was a member and the treasurer.

DEAD LETTERS LAST YEAR.—Holbrook's U. S. Mail states that during the last year there were received at the Dead letter Office 9,790 letters, containing $52,151 86. More than nine-tenths of this amount has been delivered to the writers; the remainder awaits the call of the owners.

THE WALK TO WASHINGTON.—E. P. Weston, the young man who proposes to walk to Washington, and arrive there in season to join the inauguration exercises, started from the State House, at Boston, on Friday, at 12:40 P. M. A large crowd assembled to see him off.

BELGIUM IN THE SOUTH.—A line of steamers is to be at once established between Belgium and the Southern United States, the contract in regard to which has been made between the former country and the State of Georgia.

☞ John Winkleman, an ex policeman of Baltimore, committed suicide on Saturday by hanging himself in the woods on the Washington road, beyond the city limits.

TRIALS AND EXECUTIONS IN CHINA.—A correspondent of the New York World, who belongs to the American squadron in the China sea, writes:

At Pun-yon a chief magistrate was presiding over a Court of Justice, and a large number of criminals were arraigned before it for robbery, piracy, theft, etc. Several were tried whilst we were there. The criminal was obliged to kneel in front of this officer, on the stone floor, with his feet and hands chained; if he refused to answer any question, he was severely struck upon the mouth with a piece of board, by a man who was stationed near by for that purpose, and if this failed to bring him to his senses, he was strung up by his pig-tail, great toes and thumbs, his knees made to rest on iron chains, and kept in this position until his tongue hung out, and his thumbs and toes were black and blue. There were over a dozen to be tried, but a sight of two or three was enough for us. Some of them were executed the following morning, by having their heads cut off. The prisoner stands with his hands tied behind him, and his head bent a little forward, just enough for the executioner to sever the head from the body at one blow, when he kicks the head into one corner, and pitches the body in another, streams of blood issuing from both, as water from a watering-cart, and by the time a dozen or two are executed, (it often amounts to forty) there is a pool of blood, with a mixture of hair, beneath your feet ankle deep. It is known that, upon numerous occasions, three hundred human beings have been executed in one day. It is a heart-rending scene, but after witnessing it a few moments you become accustomed to it, and the disgust with which you are at first impressed wears off entirely. Each Chinaman looks about him as if nothing of importance was taking place, and seems glad when his turn arrives. They consider life nothing, and they are only sorry that they die in this way, for they believe they enter the the other world without a head. I saw, in the "Chamber of Horrors," a miniature imitation of what they believe the next world looks, with a number of their countrymen walking about it—some turned into animals, some without heads, others clambering up mountains heavily laden, etc.

At one of the prisons we saw a woman, eighty-four years of age, the mother of the rebel chief Tai Bing, who was captured four years ago and thrust into this dismal place. It seems when they do not capture the offender himself, they take any of his family they can lay hands on, and make them suffer for his crimes. She looked haggard and careworn, and as if she had not sufficient food to keep her body and soul together. There were a number of other women, old and young, in the same place, some of whom had been imprisoned for ten years. At another we saw forty prisoners in a small and filthy apartment, with heavy wooden collars about their necks, three feet square and three inches thick, so that they could not lie down nor get their hands to their mouths; if they were neglected to be fed, the poor creatures starved to death. These collars are put on for three months at a time. At another I saw some men and women, who told me that they would much rather suffer death; they had been imprisoned fifteen years. Again, I saw some in the streets with their hands pinioned behind them, walking about, no one allowed to give them a morsel of food, for if they did it was punishable by instant death. Friends, relatives, fathers, brothers, and sisters being obliged to see their kin starve to death in the streets. Others I saw lying down in what they call the dead house, just drawing their last breath.

☞ A correspondent of a Nashville paper, travelling from Nashville to Chattanooga, says:

We noticed along the line of the road every indication of a good wheat crop—we never saw a better stand of wheat. Preparations for other crops are further advanced than usual. We learned that the crop of cotton of Rutherford is about 8,000 bales, which is 2,000 less than an average. That county usually ships bacon, corn, and wheat, but owing to a failure in the crop, there is scarcely a sufficiency of those articles for home consumption.

The Composition of White Gunpowder.—Augendre's white gunpowder consists of one part ferrocyanide of potassium, one part of white sugar, and two parts of chlorate potassa. These substances are reduced to powder separately, then mixed by hand in a porcelain mortar. It is more easily inflamed than common gunpowder, and is excellent for filling shells, but unsuited for small fire arms, because it oxygenates the steel and iron so rapidly.

The Immensity of London.—The City of London contains a population of nearly 3,000,000 of people, and it increases at the rate of 20,000 per annum. It extends eighteen miles in one direction and ten in another, and it goes on devouring up fields and gardens like a monster.

THE SIGNAL OF WOE,
HEADACHE.

HEADACHE, in all its distressing varieties, cured
IN FROM FIVE MINUTES
TO SIX HOURS,
BY RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS,
AND
RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

SICK HEADACHE,
MENTAL HEADACHE,
NERVOUS HEADACHE,
MALARIOUS HEADACHE,
BILIOUS HEADACHE,
CONGESTIVE HEADACHE,
CATARRH HEADACHE,
HEADACHE FROM FEVERS,
HEADACHE FROM TEETHING,
HEADACHE FROM SUDDEN COLDS,
AND
HEADACHE—whether as a premonitory symptom of threatened disease, or as a concomitant of a disease intrenched within the system, is instantaneously relieved by
RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,
and CURED IN SIX HOURS,
BY RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS.

There is scarcely a disease, ailment, or malady that seizes upon the human system but that one of its chief and primary symptoms is HEADACHE. The slightest derangement of the Stomach, Liver, Heart, Skin, Bowels, Kidneys, or Bladder—or a disturbance of the circulation of the blood—or interference with the perspiration—results in pain, to a greater or less degree of severity, in the HEAD.

HEADACHE

Is not of itself a disease, but it is a certain sign that foreign and unhealthy humors exist within the system and that disease is brewing within the body. Headache, therefore, should never be neglected: it is a warning of approaching woe, a signal to the sufferer to fortify the system to resist and repel the threatened disease. Headache is not only a positive sign of threatened disease, but it is likewise a concomitant of all the most violent infectious, epidemic, and fatal diseases that afflict mankind. In the malarious, contagious, and infectious fevers—in YELLOW, TYPHUS, TYPHOID, SCARLET, SHIP FEVER—in LUNG FEVER, PNEUMONIA, MEASLES, SMALL POX—

IN FEVER AGUE.

Chagres Fever, Marsh Fever, in all Remittent and Intermittent Fevers—in Bilious, Nervous, and Rheumatic Fevers—in Influenza, Sore Throat, Sudden Colds, in Diptheria, in Inflammations, Congestions, and Convulsions.

HEADACHE, HEADACHE, HEADACHE,

weighs down the brain with pain, and transforms the maddened brain to hideous insanity. In all these distressing forms of Headache,

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,
and
RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS,
are quick and positive curatives.

In all cases of Symptomatic Headache, as disordered stomach, sudden cold, excessive indulgences, close application, &c., RADWAY'S READY RELIEF will restore the sufferer to peaceful tranquillity in a few minutes, and will, in six hours, purge from the system all offending humors, and restore a healthy equalization to the circulation.

Let those who are at present suffering with Headache make the experiment. In from five minutes to six hours you will be free from pain, and will enjoy a refreshing sleep. Don't wait, but try it at once.

EMINENT AND DISTINGUISHED

and thousands of other distinguished gentlemen have used RADWAY'S READY RELIEF, RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS, RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT, and have cured themselves and others with these remedies, after all other medicines failed. Every one of the above named gentlemen will vouch for these remedies, as being the only medicines that restored them and their friends and those to whom they recommended them, to health.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.
THE MINUTE MEDICINE.

Instantaneous ease is given by Radway's Ready Relief in all cases of acute pain, internal or external. It stops in a moment the maddening agony of rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, cramps, colds, cuts, and bruises, when applied outwardly. Torture, that if continued would cause death, is arrested by a single dose of it, in five minutes. It suspends disease, giving time for the action of the other remedies. All complaints caused by unhealthy air, such as small-pox, scarlet fever, measles, fever and ague, yellow fever, cholera, dysentery, pneumonia, &c., are prevented by its occasional use. When the nervous system is paralyzed or convulsed, it produces a rapid reaction, immediately relieving spasms, convulsions, hysterics, &c. For the debilitated it is the best possible stomachic, infinitely better than alcohol in any form. Have it on hand always, for it may be required at any moment, and no drug will supply its place.

WM. SYDNEY MYERS, ESQ., HAVANA, CUBA.

HAVANA, CUBA, Jan. 2, 1858.

Messrs. RADWAY & Co., Gentlemen: I have been a sufferer from Acute Chronic Rheumatism for the last twenty years of my life; my sufferings during that period neither tongue nor pen can express. I have spent a little fortune on Doctors' bills, without deriving any substantial benefit. Recently I had one of my frequent periodical attacks. I was very ill for a week, and had not slept an hour at any one time. A Spanish friend to whom I related my sufferings, told me he had a remedy which would give me relief and he kindly presented me with a bottle of "RADWAY'S READY RELIEF." Although skeptical of deriving any advantage from its use, I that night applied it freely on going to bed, and, to my great amazement, felt relieved and slept soundly. The next night, I again applied the Ready Relief, and awoke in the morning free from pain, having only used about half the bottle.

Heartily do I return you my humble acknowledgments for your invaluable medicine, which may well be called a "blessing to man." * * * Thanking you from my soul for your wonderful remedy, I have the honor to subscribe myself,
Yours, Respectfully,
W. SYDNEY MYERS.

Great Cures of Fever and Ague,
Typhoid Fever,
Billious Fever,
Scarlet Fever,
Yellow Fever,

Fits,
Dysentery,
Rheumatism, Rheumatism,
Gout, Gout,
Lumbago, Lumbago,
All Pains, All Aches,
And Infirmities,
CURED! CURED! CURED!
By RADWAY'S READY RELIEF and RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS!

ALSO—

CERTAIN OTHER GREAT CURES ARE DAILY EFFECTED WITH MARVELLOUS RAPIDITY, By RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT.

Humors of all kinds, Sores, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Tetters, Pimples, Blotches, Tumors, Scrofula, Syphilis, Fever Sores, White Swellings, Nodes, Erysipelas, Sore Heads, Sore Eyes, Sore Mouths, Cankers, Cancers, Severe Chronic Complaints, Gout, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Bronchitis, Ulcers in the Throat, Lungs, &c.

UNHEALTHY CITIES, SICKLY CLIMATES.

Dr. Wamharie, of Curacoa, writes to the special agent of Dr. Radway as follows: This is one of the most unhealthy places in the world—medicines of known value that will cure diseases of the same character in other places have no effect upon the sick here. Radway's Ready Relief, Regulating Pills and Renovating Resolvent prove happy exceptions, for in every case where these miraculous medicines are administered, they cure the sick. I have cured the most terrible cases of yellow fever, fever and ague, typhoid fever, congestion of the liver, billious fever, by the use of the Ready Relief and Radway's Pills.

With the Ready Relief and Regulating Pills, Dysentery is harmless, Cholera becomes a pastime, and the most violent Small Pox changes to a mild form of the Varioloid. The frightful Asthma is speedily reduced to easy, unchecked breathing. In bites of snakes, and stings of insects, a single application of the Ready Relief neutralizes the poison, and soothes the irritated flesh. I have cured several cases of palpitation of the heart, rush of blood to the head, and fits of various kinds, by a few doses of Radway's Regulating Pills.

RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT

Will regenerate dilapidated humanity, cleanse, enrich, and purify the blood, cure every kind of humors, and insure to all a clear skin and fair complexion.

FOR SORE EYES, ULCERS, AND HUMORS.

The Walking Skeleton, covered with Sores and Running Ulcers.

Before the introduction of Radway's Renovating Resolvent on the coast of South America, the streets of Callao, Valparaiso, Buenos Ayres, Rio, and other populous cities, were thronged with poor and decrepid, wornout remnants of humanity, covered from head to foot with frightful sores and ulcers, discharging filthy and corrupt humors. The use of Radway's Renovating Resolvent has purified, cleansed, and healed the sick in every case. No more crippled and disabled lepers, no more foul and sore-eaten bodies are to be seen in the public streets; for in Radway's Renovating Resolvent, aided in the more severe cases by the Ready Relief and Regulating Pills, the most repulsive leper, covered with running sores and ulcers, becomes sound, clean, and healthy.

Radway's Remedies are sold by Druggists, Merchants, and Storekeepers everywhere.

Price of Radway's Ready Relief 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1 per bottle. Radway's Regulating Pills—25 cents per box (coated with gum), 30 pills in each box. Radway's Renovating Resolvent—$1 per bottle.

THURSDAY, FEB. 28, 1861.

☞ If the Peace Conference at Washington shall fail in the end to agree upon a plan of settlement, which is probable, or if Congress shall refuse to propose for the ratification of the several States the plan agreed upon by the Conference as well as all other plans, which is possible, then, in our firm conviction, every consideration of honor, of safety, and of interest demands the speedy assembling of a National Convention, direct and fresh from the people, to re-establish the Union, if it can be re-established, and, if it can't be, to dissolve it peaceably and decently. This is the step we are in favor of; it is the step which we believe the great body of the moderate and loyal men of the nation approve; and, in the emergency stated above, we hope the voice of these men, and of all others in the land, will be lifted instantly and loudly for the taking of the step.

Meanwhile, in view of the adoption of this measure, we should be glad to see the operation of the national laws suspended in the seceding States,—of course under circumstances not inconsistent with the honor and sovereign rights of the government. The suspension of the laws in this manner would without compromitting the true principles of the government insure peace until the whole people assembled in Convention should regularly and definitively settle the question of the existence of the government. Perhaps an equivalent guarantee of peace might be given in some other form. The mere form is a matter of little moment. The substance, however, is a matter of high moment. We do not permit ourselves to believe that it will be withheld by the party in power. We believe very confidently that it will be given. If offered, it certainly will not be rejected by the seceding States. We take this for granted. Under such circumstances, the seceding States could not reject any honorable offer of peace, without covering themselves over with glaring and insupportable infamy. Surely the horrors of civil war are not so sweet that they should be purchased by the deliberate sacrifice of the poor good fame which still lingers round the leaders of this wild enterprise.

If, therefore, the Peace Conference or Congress or both shall fail totally in the work of pacification, we yet perceive in a National Convention, seconded by a guarantee of truce meanwhile, the prompt and peaceable solution of our troubles, whatever the special solution may be. We ourselves have no doubt that the solution would be the one for which the heart of every patriot yearns. But if in this sanguine belief we should be unhappily mistaken, and the people of the United States, who ordained and established the government, should decree its abandonment and destruction, of which we really cannot entertain the thought, the decree at least would be submitted to in peace. However pregnant of folly and of woe, it would be a regular and authoritative decree; and as such the constituency of the nation would accept it. And no other decree would be so accepted.

The adoption of the general policy we have outlined, in the contingency we have mentioned, appears to us, accordingly, to offer the only reasonable chance either of preserving the Union or of escaping from instant anarchy and bloodshed if the work of dissolution should be consummated. We hope the contingency we have mentioned will not occur; but, if it shall, we trust every friend not merely of the Union but of humanity will unite forthwith in urging vigorously the adoption of the general policy we have outlined.

☞ A writer in the Charleston Mercury says "the three-fifth rule of representation for slaves was one of the many Yankee swindles upon us in the formation of the old Constitution." This assertion is disproved by all the facts of history. As early as July 21, 1775, Dr. Franklin, in his plan for a confederation, proposed that representation should be regulated by the number of male polls between sixteen and sixty years of age. In 1777 Virginia and Pennsylvania alone supported a motion that the large States should have one vote for every 50,000 white inhabitants. In 1783, when Congress was adopting measures to supply the Treasury, the proportion of representation was again debated. Mr. Wilson, of Pennsylvania, and Mr. Clark, of New Jersey, who were members of the Constitutional Convention, said, when the article referred to by the writer in the Charleston Mercury was adopted, the Southern States were willing, but the Eastern States would not consent that only half the slaves should be counted; Oliver Wolcott, of Conn., proposed "that four slaves be rated as three freemen;" Mr. Carroll, of Md., proposed "that four slaves be rated as one freeman;" Mr. Williamson, of North Carolina, thought the slaves should be excluded altogether, as being an incumbrance, instead of increasing the ability to pay taxes; Mr. Rutledge, of South Carolina, would consent to the proportion of two to one, but he thought three to one a "juster proportion," and Mr. Madison, as a compromise, proposed that slaves should be rated as five to three, which was finally agreed to by eleven States. Thus we see that the three-fifth rate of representation for slaves instead of being a "Yankee swindle" was adopted on the motion of James Madison.

☞ One of the current fallacies of the secessionists is the assumption that the treaties acknowledging the independence of the United States acknowledged the separate independence of the States and not merely the independence of the United States as one nation. This assumption, absurd upon its face and clear through, is quietly but effectually disposed of by a passage in Washington's letter to Greene which we publish to-day. "It is only in our united character as an empire," says Washington, "that our independence is acknowledged, that our power can be regarded, or our credit supported among foreign nations. The treaties of European Powers with the United States of America will have no validity on a dissolution of the Union. We shall be left nearly in a state of nature; or we may find, by our own unhappy experience, that there is a natural and necessary progression from the extreme of anarchy to the extreme of tyranny, and that arbitrary power is easily established on the ruins of liberty abused to licentiousness." The theory of State sovereignty on which the Cotton States are acting never so much as flitted across the brain of Washington. He was profoundly unconscious of the doctrine even as the spawn of political metaphysics. Political metaphysics indeed hadn't yet spawned the doctrine.

☞ The old rats who have eaten the federal cheese at Washington close to its very parings are all rushing with unstinted appetites for the new cheese of the Southern Confederacy. They have swarmed in such large numbers, burrowed into office so fast, and seem so determined to obtain comfortable places, that the Washington Star, which knows the political history of the rat from long observation and experience, is forced to concede that these disunion conspirators usurped the government of the Gulf States solely with the view of keeping their hold on place and power somehow and somewhere, it having become certain, that, in the turn of the political wheel, the people of the United States had decided to divorce them from their late official positions.

☞ The Courier intimates that the Hon. J. P. Benjamin is about to sue for his lost character. Instead of getting out subpoenas on this trial, he will have to employ search warrants. We hope he may be successful, although we fully agree with Douglas Jerrold that "the character which requires the law to mend it is hardly worth the tinkering."

The birth day of Washington! It is with a sort of awe we say the words.
Memphis Appeal.

Indeed it must be with a sort of awe that you say the words—such an awe as you would feel if the frowning ghost of the mighty dead stood before you and were extending a cold finger to blast you for your treason to the country he saved.

☞ The Cotton State provisional government is limited to one year as the term of its existence. If the Border States act wisely and justly, we guess that a year is quite as long as a Cotton States government of any sort will be needed.

☞ Our readers may remember that we set down the Union majority in Tennessee at 50,000 It has gone up already, by the returns, to 70,000. We cannot venture to guess what figure it will go to in the end.

☞ We published some days since an article from the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle and Sentinel which spoke of the result in Virginia as a glorious victory for the Union men. In a subsequent number of that paper, it says that for this, and other expressions of loyal attachment to the government of our fathers, threats have openly been made to destroy the character and business of the paper. These things have not been mentioned before, but now it says it has been forbearing long enough. Unrestrained popular passion, personal ambition, and party excesses have produced disunion as it believes, and unless these be checked its fears are that they will finally result in civil war, loss of liberty and the establishment of a military despotism. Against a state of affairs leading to these results the Chronicle utters a voice of warning. It reiterates the opinions expressed in the article which has created so much feeling; is glad that the Bell and Douglas men triumphed in Virginia, since it knows that there are no submissionists among them; calls the attention of those who threaten it to the fact that the new government of the Southern Confederacy has not been sinned against, inasmuch as the State Convention of Georgia has not yet recognized it, and promises to declare its opinions and utter its warnings just as freely in the future as it has in the past.

☞ It is said that Buchanan will veto the Pacific Railroad bill if it should pass Congress. We presume, from the falsification of all his past pledges, that he would do so as regards this great national necessity. But we cannot forget that he wrote a letter to California in favor of a Pacific railroad, which reached its destination in time to have its favorable effect there, but too late to prejudice his political chances among the anti-improvement States of the South by having it come back before the election.

☞ It is rumored that Mr. Lincoln will retain Messrs. Dix and Holt respectively in the Treasury and War Departments, until the present complications are definitely settled. It would be an admirable policy for the President-elect to compose his Cabinet of Union men irrespective of all old party distinctions. Such a course would beget more confidence in the public mind than all the pacific declarations he can make in an Inaugural Address.

☞ When every State has adopted its distinctive flag, every county its banner, and every town its pennon, the old stars and stripes will still float majestically above them all, and inspire more respect than all the rest. Like the scene described in Scott's poem of Marmion:

> In the air
> A thousand streamers floated fair,
> Various in shape, device, and hue,!
> Green, sanguine, purple, red, and blue;
> Broad, narrow, swallow-tailed, and square,
> Scroll, pennon, pencil, bandrol, there
> O'er the pavilions flew;
> Highest and midmost was descried
> The Royal Banner floating wide.

☞ South Carolina is using her railroad iron to strengthen her floating batteries. She can well do that, for she has no longer any use for railroads. No persons from abroad are immigrating to her territory, and she doesn't want to afford facilities for emigration.

☞ Gen. Twiggs by his shameful and traitorous surrender of the federal military property in Texas to the revolutionists has made his character "black and begrimed," as his head has been for years under the influence of his special hair dye.

☞ Fort Sumter fired a national salute of thirty-four guns in honor of Washington's birth-day. We are surprised that Gov. Pickens and his secession army did not resent this insult by a prompt bombardment of the audacious garrison.

ERRORS.—In a late number of the Louisville Journal Governor Floyd is alluded to no less than three times in one column as Secretary of the Treasury.—Washington States.

Such slips of the pen are pardonable, for our mind was running on the fact that Floyd had abstracted six millions of dollars from the Treasury.

☞ The seceding States, fearing no doubt a deplorable want of provisions, have made a provisional government.

[Washington Correspondence of the Louisville Journal.]
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.

The sudden flight of Mr. Lincoln through the city of Baltimore by night, and the absurd stories of plots of assassination put forth as excuses for this extremely ill advised proceeding, the idle rumors of a conspiracy against the President elect to take his life on his way through Maryland are the purest fabrications ever invented. The flaming accounts that "the list of the names of the conspirators presented a most astonishing array of persons high in Southern confidence, and some whose fame is not confined to this country alone," and that "statesmen laid the plan, bankers endorsed it, and adventurers were to carry it into effect," are merely weak inventions of the sensation news gatherers, who were all taken by surprize in finding the victim of their intemizing propensities had escaped from their clutches. The perfect safety of the passage of the family and attendants of the President elect from Harrisburg to Washington in accordance with the published programme proves the absurdity of these rumors. The reception prepared for him at Baltimore was quite as respectful if not as enthusiastic as in other cities, and the events show that he could have passed through Maryland in open daylight, amidst thousands of curious observers, not only without assault, but without insult or the slightest indignity.

There is one very singular fact in connection with this hegira of the President elect. While he was hurried off incog. at an unusual hour and to avoid the danger of an assault by ruffians who had sworn to take the lives of all on the special train, or to throw the train down an embankment, or blow it to atoms by infernal machines placed upon the track, or to surround his carriage in the streets of Baltimore and end his life by dagger or pistol, Mrs. Lincoln and the irrepressible "Bob" were allowed to undertake all these terrible dangers. It is incomprehensible how Col. Sumner, "who cried with indignation," and Mr. Judd, the would be Postmaster General, would invoke the tears of Mrs. Lincoln to induce the great Rail splitter to save his precious life by an indecent flight over the soil of Maryland and through the terrible Union-loving city of Baltimore, and immediately afterwards expose themselves and the wife and son of the President elect to the inevitable dangers they so urgently implored him to avoid. The whole affair is so absurdly inconsistent and ridiculous that we are lost in astonishment at the proceeding.

No sane man could have been deceived by the absurd rumors of preparations on the way for the extermination of the President elect and his party. The very men who advised him to hurry on in advance of the programme did not believe them or they would not have exposed Mrs. Lincoln and Mr. Lincoln Junior to these fearful dangers. It looks like a plot of Judd's to impress the President elect with a sense of his extreme solicitude for the safety of his chieftain and his willingness to suffer death in his stead, as a means of securing that coveted place in the Cabinet. It seems that Judd was the most importunate in advising this proceeding. By it, in a single night, he has destroyed the greatest charm in the character of the President elect. He has ruined, at one fell blow, the reputation Mr. Lincoln had enjoyed for Jackson-like firmness and boldness that the people were anxious once again to see in an occupant of the Presidency. Mr. Judd has effectually ruined all his chances for a Cabinet appointment. He has proved himself a miserable adviser, unfit to make suggestions in Cabinet council, and the star of Schuyler Colfax is in the ascendency for the post so much coveted by this contriver of coups d'etat.

There is not a shadow of foundation for these silly rumors in regard to conspiracies to attack or to harm or even insult the President elect. It is true that a parcel of unprincipled office-seekers in Baltimore, who, when they found that Lincoln's chances for election were the best, proclaimed themselves Republicans, formed themselves into a Republican Committee of Reception, and were known to be so excessively odious to the people of Baltimore city that it was apprehended that they would, on their appearance in public as a Reception Committee, be hooted at and hissed and pelted with eggs; but to avoid such an unpleasant proceeding it would only have been necessary for Mr. Lincoln to have declined the officious proffer of their services. He won'd thus have achieved a popularity in Baltimore that he could in no other way attain. It is suspected that these fellows of the self-appointed Reception Committee themselves put in circulation the rumors of danger, in order to exaggerate their sublime devotion to the Republican President elect and to win his gratitude in the shape of appointments to office on account of their noble willingness to suffer martyrdom in his behalf. This is about the whole story. Like that of the three black crows it has a very slender foundation, and is after all only a new dodge of hungry seekers after Presidential favor and official patronage.

The Peace Congress is progressing slowly. The anti-compromise faction are endeavoring by the introduction of a multitude of amendments to procrastinate a decision, but their efforts will not delay the result longer than to-morrow. There is a decided majority in favor of the adjustment measures, the chief feature of which, that in reference to the Territories, was adopted on Saturday. Their report will probably be made on Wednesday and before the end of the week the propositions submitted will have passed both Houses of Congress by a decisive vote. The measures proposed receive the almost unanimous approbation of the Southern Border State Commissioners, and will take from the seceding States all pretext for the maintenance of their separate confederation for want of guaranties of protection of Southern rights. They will be compelled to abandon their treasonable project and come back into the Union, or show their hands and proclaim the fact that their proceeding is only the execution of a long concerted plan to erect the Gulf States alone into a separate Southern Confederacy not on account of any grievances in the old Union but to gratify personal ambition in the new one.

A LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.—The National Intelligencer published on the late anniversary of the birthday of Washington the subjoined letter or passages of a letter from the deathless patriot. "We know not how we can better interpret the spirit in which this day should be kept, and suggest the meditations to which it should be consecrated," says the Intelligencer in prefacing the quotations, "than by citing for the renewed perusal of our readers the subjoined extracts from a letter addressed by Gen. Washington to Gov. Green, of Rhode Island, at the close of the Revolutionary war, when the same evils impended over the country, from the want of unity under the Articles of Confederation, as have now been precipitated upon the land by the partial disruption of the Union which has so long been our safety and ornament." The letter is dated July 18, 1783:

SIR: The great object for which I had the honor to hold an appointment in the service of my country being accomplished, I am now preparing to resign it into the hands of Congress, and return to that domestic retirement which, it is well known, I left with great reluctance. * * *

The foundation of our empire was not laid in the gloomy age of ignorance and superstition, but at an epoch when the rights of mankind were better understood and more clearly than at any former period. * * *

At this auspicious period the United States came into existence as a nation, and if their citizens be not completely free and happy the fault will be entirely their own. Such is our situation, and such are our prospects.

But, notwithstanding the cup of blessing is thus reached out to us; notwithstanding happiness is ours, if we have a disposition to seize the occasion and make it our own, yet it appears to me there is an option still left to the United States of America, whether they will still be respectable and prosperous or contemptible and miserable as a nation. This is the time of their political probation; this is the moment when the eyes of the whole world are turned upon them; this is the moment to establish or ruin their national character forever; this is the favorable moment to give such a tone to the Federal Government as will enable it to answer the ends of its institution; or this may be the ill-fated moment for relaxing the powers of the Union, annihilating the cement of the Confederation, and exposing us to the sport of European politics, which may array one State against another, to prevent their growing importance and to serve their own interested purposes. For, according to the system of policy the States shall adopt at this moment, they will stand or fall; and by their confirmation or lapse, it is yet to be decided whether the revolution must ultimately be a blessing or a curse—a blessing or a curse not to the present age alone, for with our fate will the destiny of unborn millions be involved. With this conviction of the importance of the present crisis, silence in me would be a crime. I will, therefore, speak to your Excellency the language of freedom and of sincerity, without disguise.

* * * * * * * *

There are four things which I humbly conceive are essential to the well being, I may venture to say the existence, of the United States as an independent power.

1. An indissoluble union of the States under one confederated head.
2. A sacred regard to public justice.
3. The adoption of a proper peace establishment.

And 4th. The prevalence of that pacific and friendly disposition among the people of the United States which will induce them to forget their local prejudices, to make those mutual concessions which are requisite to the general prosperity, and in some instances to sacrifice their individual advantages to the interest of the community.

These are the pillars on which the glorious fabric of our independency and national character must be supported. Liberty is the basis; and whoever would dare to sap the foundation, or overturn the structure, under whatever specious pretext he may attempt it, will merit the bitterest execration and the severest punishment which can be inflicted by his injured country. * * *

Yet it will be a part of my duty, and that of every true patriot, to assert, without reserve, and to insist upon the following propositions:

That, unless the States will suffer Congress to exercise those prerogatives they are undoubtedly invested with by the Constitution, everything must very rapidly tend to anarchy and confusion. That it is indispensable to the happiness of the individual States that there should be lodged somewhere a supreme power to regulate and govern the general concerns of the confederated Republic, without which the Union cannot be of long duration. That there must be a faithful and pointed compliance on the part of every State with late proposals and demands of Congress, or the most fatal consequences will ensue. That whatever measures have a tendency to dissolve the Union, or contribute to violence, or lessen the sovereign authority ought to be condemned as hostile to the liberty and independence of America, and the authors of them treated accordingly. And, lastly, that, unless we can be enabled by the concurrence of the States to participate of the fruits of the revolution, and enjoy the essential benefits of civil society, under a form of government so free and uncorrupted, so happily guarded against the danger of oppression, as has been advised and adopted by the Articles of Confederation, it will be a subject of regret that so much blood and treasure have been lavished to no purpose, that so many sufferings have been encountered without a compensation, and that so many sacrifices have been made in vain.

Many other considerations might here be adduced to prove that, without an entire conformity to the spirit of the Union, we cannot exist as an independent power. It will be sufficient for my purpose to mention but one or two, which seem to me of the greatest importance. It is only in our united character, as an empire, that our independence is acknowledged, that our power can be regarded, or our credit supported among foreign nations. The treaties of European powers with the United States of America will have no validity on a dissolution of the Union. We shall be left nearly in a state of nature; or we may find, by our own unhappy experience, that there is a natural and necessary progression from the extreme of anarchy to the extreme of tyranny, and that arbitrary power is most easily established on the ruins of liberty abused to licentiousness. * *

If, after all, a spirit of disunion or a temper of obstinacy and perverseness should manifest itself in any of the States, if such an ungracious disposition should attempt to frustrate all the happy effects that might be expected to flow from the Union, * * that State alone which puts itself into opposition to the aggregate wisdom of the continent, and follows such mistaken and pernicious counsels, will be responsible for all the consequences. * * * * * *

I have thus freely disclosed what I wished to make known before I surrender up my public trust to those who committed it to me. * *

I now make it my earnest prayer that God would have you and the State over which you preside in His holy protection; that he would incline the hearts of the citizens to cultivate a spirit of subordination and obedience to government; to entertain a brotherly affection and love for one another, for their fellow-citizens of the United States at large, and particularly for their brethren who have served in the field; and, finally, that He would most graciously be pleased to dispose us all to do justice, to love mercy, and to demean ourselves with that charity, humility, and pacific temper of mind which were the characteristics of the Divine Author of our blessed religion. Without an humble imitation of these things, we can never hope to be a happy nation.

I have the honor to be, &c., &c.,
GEORGE WASHINGTON.
His Excellency WILLIAM GREEN, Esq.,
Governor of the State of Rhode Island.

SECRETARY DIX'S TREASURY REPORT ON THE COLLECTION OF CUSTOMS AT NEW ORLEANS.

On the 11th inst. the House of Representatives passed the following resolution, on motion of Mr. Sickles:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury be requested to inform this House whether the duties on imports continue to be collected in the ports of entry established by law in the States of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana, and Florida, and whether any hindrances exist to the law of entry and clearing of vessels thereto; also the present condition of the lighthouses, beacons and buoys in the said harbors and adjacent waters; also what measures, if any, have been taken to secure revenue vessels in the service of the Department from seizure or to recover possession of such as have been seized; also, what measures have been adopted for the security of the public moneys in the hands of depositaries in the aforesaid States, and whether they are available to the Treasury; also whether the use and control of any of the marine hospitals, permanent or temporary, have been interfered with, and what proceedings have been adopted with reference thereto."

In compliance with this request, the Hon. John A. Dix, Secretary of the Treasury, submitted to the House of Representatives a report of considerable length. So much as relates to and explains the recent stoppage of goods in transit at New Orleans we place before our readers:

On the 2d instant it was publicly announced that the Custom House at New Orleans had been taken possession of by the State of Louisiana, and that the Collector of the Customs had taken the oath of allegiance.

On the receipt of this intelligence the following despatch was sent by telegraph:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Feb. 2, 1861.
F. H. Hatch, Collector of Customs, New Orleans:
Have the authorities of the State of Louisiana taken possession of the Custom House? Have you taken the oath of allegiance to that State?
JOHN A. DIX, Sec'y of the Treasury.

No answer was received until the 6th instant, when the following despatch came to hand:

NEW ORLEANS, Feb 6, 1861.
Hon. John A. Dix, Secretary of the Treasury:
SIR: Your despatch of the 2d was received this day. The authorities of the State of Louisiana took possession of this Custom House on the 31st ult. I mailed my resignation on that day, and advised you of the same by letter of that date, to which please refer.
F. H. HATCH.

It may be proper to state, in this place, that, while despatches by telegraph from New Orleans to this department have come in their regular course, when sent by persons in the interest of the State authorities, those sent from the Department have, since the 1st inst., been from four to five days on the way, indicating that they were intercepted and scrutinized at some intervening point, and perhaps forwarded thence through a different channel to the persons to whom they were addressed. Between this city and New Orleans, despatches are re-written at Augusta, Ga., and Montgomery and Mobile, Ala., affording the opportunity of enforcing against the wishes of the telegraph company at each of those places, a system of espionage known only to the despotic governments of the Old World.

On the 5th inst the following despatch was received by telegraph:

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 4, 1861.
Hon. JOHN A. DIX:
Collector at New Orleans declines to pass goods on bonds given here, unless cancelling certificates are given in name of Louisiana or duties paid there. What shall I do about the matter? Will parties having goods for which they have given bonds for payment of duties here, be held released by Government, if to get them without delay they pay duties at New Orleans?
W. N. HALDEMAN,
Surveyor of Customs.

The following was immediately transmitted:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Feb. 5, 1861.
W. N. HALDEMAN, Surveyor, &c., Louisville, Ky.:
Telegraph despatches received. Too indefinite. Particulars in full by mail.
JOHN A. DIX,
Secretary of the Treasury.

On the ensuing day the following was transmitted:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Feb. 6, 1861.
WALTER N. HALDEMAN, Surveyor, &c., Louisville, Ky.:
What evidence have you that the Collector of Customs at New Orleans has acted as you stated in your despatch of yesterday?
JOHN A. DIX, Sec'y of Treasury.

The following reply was received on the same day:

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 6, 1861.
HON. JOHN A. DIX, Secretary of the Treasury:
Casseday & Son, importers here, were so advised by Clark, Mosby, & Co., their agents at New Orleans. Wrote you fully yesterday.
W. N. HALDEMAN,
Surveyor of Customs.

On the same day the mail brought the following letter, alluded to in the foregoing despatch:

UNITED STATES CUSTOM HOUSE, }
LOUISVILLE, Feb. 4, 1861. }

SIR:—Messrs. S. Casseday & Son, china merchants of this city, received the following telegraphic despatch this morning, from their agents at New Orleans:

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 1, 1861.
MESSRS. S. CASSEDAY & SON:—Custom House in possession of Louisiana. Kentucky bonds refused. Will your Surveyor grant cancelling certificates for goods bonded in the name of Louisiana? Otherwise must pay duty.
CLARK, MOSBY, & CO.

At the urgent request of the Messrs. Casseday, I at once telegraphed you for instructions. They are anxious to get their goods without delay from New Orleans, and had arranged to bond here and withdraw them as their sales required. Having given bond, however, for the payment of duties here, the question has occurred to them if they are not still liable for the duties to the United States, even if they pay them now at the Custom House in New Orleans. Of course I declined to give a cancelling certificate as requested, but as other like cases may arise, and as nearly all the goods brought to this port are received via New Orleans, I respectfully request full instructions in the premises. I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
W. N. HALDEMAN,
Surveyor of Customs.

Hon. JOHN A. DIX, Secretary United States Treasury, Washington, D. C.

On the 8th, the following was received from the Surveyor of the Port of Cincinnati:

CUSTOM HOUSE, CINCINNATI, Feb. 8, 1861.
Hon. JOHN A. DIX, Secretary of the Treasury, Washington:
The following despatch received here: "New Orleans, Feb. 6, 1861. Hunnewell, Hill, & Co., Cincinnati. Carlyle arrived. Can't enter in bond. Shall pay duties here. Remit six hundred and thirty-two dollars. Voorhees, Griggs, & Co." Several cases here of same kind. Merchants wish advice and instructions.
T. JEFFERSON SHERLOCK,
Surveyor of Customs.

On the same day the following was sent by telegraph, in reply to the surveyors of the ports of Louisville and Cincinnati:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Feb. 8, 1861.
Department cannot recognize the payment of duties to the State collector at New Orleans. The goods will be liable to the United States for duties, notwithstanding such payments.
JOHN A. DIX,
Secretary of the Treasury.

On the 9th, the following was received from the surveyor of the port of Cincinnati:

CINCINNATI CUSTOM HOUSE, Feb. 9, 1861.
Hon. JOHN A. DIX, Secretary of the Treasury:
The following despatch received here this morning:

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 8, 1861.
HUNNEWELL, HILL, & Co., Cincinnati:
Convention decided goods can be transported in bond as heretofore. Certificates only required. Publish telegraph.
VOORHEES, GRIGGS, & Co:
Your despatch received.
T. JEFFERSON SHERLOCK.

It will be seen hereafter that this despatch was founded on a misapprehension, or that the oppressive and illegal practice supposed to have been abandoned was speedily resumed.

From these communications by letter and by telegraph, from mercantile houses and from the chief revenue officers at the ports of Cincinnati and Louisville, it appears that the collector of the customs at New Orleans, after assuming to act under the authorities of the State of Louisiana, refused to pass the goods entered at that port for transportation to and delivery at Louisville, Ky., and other ports for delivery, unless the Surveyors of the latter ports, holding their commissions from the United States, and performing their duties within a State loyal to the Union, would acknowledge the authority of the State of Louisiana by cancelling transportation bonds given in her name to secure the payment of duties on goods imported by sea. This they could not do without violating their oaths of office; and, in default of such an act of official turpitude in any case, the duties were to be exacted at New Orleans. No doubt this was the alternative designed to be secured. The declaration of an intention to execute a particular purpose, except on a condition impossible to be performed, can only be regarded as an absolute determination to carry out the purpose without condition.

Under existing laws, the importer of goods by sea, to be delivered at Louisville, a port of delivery, may make entry at New Orleans, and give a bond for their transportation to the former port where the duties are paid.

On their arrival at Louisville, the importer may place them in a warehouse and pay the duties when he withdraws them for consumption. On payment of the duties the bond is cancelled. The interior ports of delivery above New Orleans are twenty in number, and among them are Nashville and Memphis, Tenn.; Louisville, Ky.; Cincinnati, Ohio; Evansville, Ind.; St. Louis, Mo.; Wheeling, Va.; Pittsburg, Pa.; and Cairo and Alton, Ill. The duties collected at these twenty ports of delivery have, during the last five years, averaged over $500,000 per annum. For the year ending June 30, 1857, they exceeded $700,000.

The refusal of the Collector at New Orleans to pass goods in bond for transportation to the ports of delivery above, and the exaction of duties at the former port (for such was the effect of his requirements during the first seven days of this month), not only subjected importers to the onerous obligation of paying the impost before the goods were needed for consumption, and thus deprive them of a privilege secured by the revenue laws, but it forced them either to resort to other channels of communication or pay double duties, for the Department cannot recognize the Collector at New Orleans, who has resigned his commission and assumes to act under the authority of the State of Louisiana; and, therefore, the payment of duties to him does not exonerate them from the payment to the United States.

But there is a larger view of the subject which is of far graver importance. The revenue derived from merchandise imported for consumption, by way of New Orleans, into the great States bordering on the rivers which have their outlet to the Gulf of Mexico, through the territories of Louisiana, has been monopolized by her. In so doing, she has struck a fatal blow at the free navigation of the Mississippi, by making the inward commerce of the West by sea subject to her authority and tributary to her treasury.

Whatever may be the practice in regard to goods received from our own cities by sea, and destined to the upper ports, there can be no doubt that merchandise imported from foreign countries is required to be entered at New Orleans; and, if the duties are not exacted, they must be bonded in the name of the State of Louisiana for transportation. For, notwithstanding the assurance contained in the despatch of the Surveyor of the port of Cincinnati, of the 9th of February, communicating one from Voorhees, Griggs, & Co., of the 8th, goods are not "transported in bond as heretofore." On the contrary it appears that bonds executed at the twenty ports of delivery above New Orleans, in the name of the United States, as they may be under existing laws, are not recognized by the Collector of the latter port, but that he requires them to be executed at New Orleans, and in the name of the State of Louisiana.

On the 14th instant the following letter was received at the department:

CINCINNATI, Feb. 12, 1861.
Hon. JOHN A. DIX, Secretary of the Treasury:
DEAR SIR: We notice to-day that the collector at New Orleans has decided that duties on all goods passing through New Orleans, destined for inland ports, must be paid at that port on account of the treasury of Louisiana. We have about 200 crates earthenware due at New Orleans in the ships Wurtemburg and Oroondates, and will thank you to inform us on receipt of this what course we shall pursue in regard to payment of duties. Will the department protect us, or must we pay duties at New Orleans? The invoices are all sworn to here and sent forward for shipment to this port in bond.
Very respectfully, BARE & WEST.

Two days before the receipt of this letter a despatch had been transmitted to the surveyor at the port of Louisville to ascertain what rule was then enforced by the collector at New Orleans in regard to bonds for duties and transportation. On the 14th the following reply was received:

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 14, 1861.
HON. JOHN A. DIX, Secretary of the Treasury:
Bonds for the goods were given here, not at New Orleans, and our importers inform me that the Collector there still declines to recognize them. Have telegraphed to know definitely, and will advise you immediately after his reply comes.
W. N. HALDEMAN, Surveyor.

At a late hour on the same day the following despatch was received:

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 14, 1861.
HON JOHN A. DIX, Secretary of the Treasury:
Collector Hatch telegraphs me that transportations are continued as usual, but bonds must be given to the State of Louisiana and executed at New Orleans.
W. N. HALDEMAN, Surveyor, &c.

As this despatch was founded on one received on that day from the Collector at New Orleans, it must be regarded not only as authentic but official, and it shows that no bonds are received unless executed at that port and in the name of the State of Louisiana.

That the department has not misinterpreted the meaning of this despatch, or misapprehended the effect of the practice adopted at New Orleans in regard to the payment of duties and the nature of the bonds required of importers residing at the upper ports, is also manifest from the letters of complaint received almost every day asking the protection of the government against these exactions.

The following is one of these letters:

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 14, 1861.
HON. JOHN A. DIX—
DEAR SIR:—We are just in receipt of a letter from the Custom House at New Orleans informing us that a lot of queensware for us had arrived, but that it would be impossible for us to get it unless it would be paid for (the customs). We have given a bond for it here, and we would not like to pay for it twice. You will confer a great favor by answering us immediately. Yours, &c.,
GODSHAW & FLEXNER.

It is not distinctly understood whether the duties are, by the condition of these bonds, to be paid at New Orleans, or whether the obligors may be discharged by payment at the port of delivery. In either case the authority of the Federal Government is overthrown, and the free navigation of the Mississippi abrogated. If Louisiana is, as she assumes to be, a foreign Power in reference to the nine States above her, which have ports of delivery where duties on goods imported by way of New Orleans may be paid, the exercise of the right of requiring such goods to be entered and bonded for transportation to those ports is in violation of the principle, always asserted by the United States, in regard to the free commercial use of navigable streams by States bordering on them.

The question is not varied in principle if she has become, or shall hereafter become, a confederate of the five other States which have assumed to throw off their allegiance to the Union. While this right was exercised by the United States, Louisiana, and the States above, in which there are ports of delivery, being subject to the same government, it was merely for the institution of revenue regulations common to all. But if Louisiana has become a foreign power in reference to them, it rises into an international question of the very highest delicacy and importance.

The United States have uniformly placed the free navigation of rivers on the ground of natural right. The Congress of Vienna, in 1815, recognized the same principles by declaring the navigation of the rivers separating or crossing the territories of the great powers to be entirely free. The vindication of this right in regard to the Mississippi river, at various epochs in our correspondence with foreign powers, when they were in possession of territories bordering on it, has produced some of the ablest State papers in the archives of the Government. * * *

One of the chief objects in view in the purchase of the territory of Louisiana was to secure this right to the people of the United States. The possession of the country at and near the mouth of the Mississippi by Spain and France had given rise to embarrassments and contentions which threatened, at different periods, to involve us in hostilities with both those powers; and it was in order to put an end to these dissensions forever, and especially to protect the people of the States on the higher portions of the river in the free use of its waters for commercial purposes, that the territory was purchased of France by Mr. Jefferson, after a protracted negotiation and at a heavy expense to the National Treasury, thus securing to the United States and the inhabitants—to use his own language—the uncontrolled navigation of that river in its whole course.

Louisiana was created a State out of a portion of the territory thus acquired, on the express and fundamental condition that the river Mississippi, and the navigable rivers and waters leading into the same, and into the Gulf of Mexico, should be common highways, and forever free, as well to the inhabitants of the said State as to the inhabitants of other States and the Territories of the United States without any tax, duty, impost, or toll therefor imposed by the said State.

In violation of this condition, and in open defiance of a great natural right, written—to use the language of our diplomacy—in deep characters on the heart of man, the State of Louisiana, after declaring herself separate from the other States of the Union, and in the exercise of a sovereignty wholly independent of them, assumes to arrest the free passage of goods from the ocean to the States above her, to estimate their value by her own officers, to assess imposts on them, and to exact from the importers, not her own citizens, bonds for the payment of the duties, and for their transportation to the places out of her own territory to which they are destined.

The control thus assumed over the commerce of the Mississippi goes far beyond the pretensions set up in the Old World, on the basis of ancient prescription—pretensions which have been, in times past, a fruitful source of dissension and bloodshed, but are now condemned by the general judgment of mankind.

In its bearing on the revenue system of the United States, this subject assumes an importance peculiar to itself. The usurpation in question practically abolishes the twenty ports of delivery above New Orleans, at any one of which, under existing laws, goods may be received by sea and the duties on them paid. It diverts the customs revenue, ordinarily collected on such goods at these ports from the Treasury of the United States into that of Louisiana. It abrogates the whole revenue system of the United States in the Valley of the Mississippi above New Orleans, so far as it is applicable to the importations of merchandise by sea. This subversion of the authority of the United States is sustained and enforced through the military occupation by Louisiana of the fortresses erected at the mouth of the Mississippi at the common expense of the States of the Union for the protection of the vast commerce of that river and its tributaries. The vessels placed there by the Federal Government to enforce the execution of the revenue laws have fallen into her hands. It matters not whether the officers to whom they were confided were corrupted through the agency of others, or whether their treachery to the government to which they had sworn allegiance, and fidelity, was the fruit of a spontaneous dereliction of high moral official obligations. The State, by receiving them and the vessels they commanded into her service, has given her countenance and sanction to the most odious of political offences. She has completed a series of unresisted usurpations without a parallel in our history, by seizing the public treasure in the Branch Mint at New Orleans, (placed there by a confiding government, with the assurance that under the ægis eye of her honor it would be secure from violation,) and appropriating it under circumstances showing either that there was a criminal complicity on the part of the officer to whom it was entrusted; or that he yielded to the coercive power of superior physical force. As aids to a forcible assumption of the revenue authority of the government, these successive acts have an importance too obvious to be overlooked. That this pretension will be speedily renounced can hardly be doubted. It concerns the interests of nine States which are loyal to the Union, and which have an aggregate population of more than fourteen millions of souls. If persisted in, it must become a source of the most embittered strife. Its assertion as the exponent of the independent attitude Louisiana has assumed, shows that the safety of the riparian States, of the Mississippi and its tributaries, must depend on the regulation of the revenue system on these waters by a common government, in the administration of which all have a voice, and that the possession of the fortresses which command the entrance into the great natural channel of internal communication can not for any length of time remain under a less restricted military control without the most serious disturbances. And it behooves the whole country, especially that great portion of it which is penetrated by the currents of the Mississippi and its continents, to consider where the commercial ascendancy, thus assumed by the State of Louisiana, will be likely to have a termination, if any just conception of its magnitude and arbitrary control may be inserted from these incipient developments.

Throughout this whole course of encroachment and aggression, the federal government has borne itself with a spirit of paternal forbearance, of which there is no example in the history of political society, waiting in the patient hope that the empire of reason would resume its sway over those whom the excitement of passion had thus blinded, and trusting that the friends of good order, wearied with submission to proceedings which they disapproved, would at no distant day rally under the banner of the Union, and exert themselves with vigor and success against the prevailing recklessness and violence.

SUGAR—175 hhds fair and strictly prime Sugar received per E. H. Fairchild and Grey Eagle and for sale by [f27] GOOD & MOODY.

THE FAMINE IN KANSAS.

Appeal for the Destitute from the New York City Committee.

WM. C. BRYANT, Chairman. A. E. WILLIAMS, Treasurer.

Chas. H. Marshall, Seth B. Hunt, R. H. McCurdy,
Morris Ketchum, G. C. Bronson, Chas. W. Elliott,
Daniel Lord, Daniel Drew, J. S. Wadsworth.

It has become our imperative duty to urge upon the public attention the fact—that over 40,000 of our fellow-citizens in Kansas are now in imminent danger of starving. We have the evidence from all sources—from Gen. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Territorial Relief Committee, from the columns of nearly every newspaper there, of all shades of politics—from our own reliable agent who has just returned. There was no doubt of the misery, terrible, wide-spread, destructive.

We have evidence that whole families have already died of starvation; and that thousands more must lie down discouraged, and die of want and disease consequent upon it, unless prompt and thorough relief is at once supplied. Congress is now attempting to sustain the starving Indians, but our 40,000 fellow-countrymen—men, women, and children—can neither get away from the desolation, nor borrow, nor beg. Their only dependence is upon us who have never known hunger.

THEY MUST BE SUSTAINED. Will you help us to help them?

To assure you that whatever you do will reach them, we state that in every destitute township is a Relief Committee—these are all represented by the Territorial Committee as follows:

TERRITORIAL COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Atchison; W. W. Guthrie, Brown county; J. L. McDowell, Leavenworth; Rev. C. Reynolds, Lawrence; Rev. L. Bodwell, Topeka; Dr. S. Ayers, Linn county; F. U. Blake, Junction City; C. B. Lines, Wabaunsee; F. H. Baker, Centralia; Rev. Wm. Bishop, Salina; Judge A. Spaulding, Jefferson county; J. C. Burnett Bourbon county; J. C. Lambdin, Butler county; Geo. M. Russell, Wyandotte.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Chairman; J. L. McDowell, Rev. C. Reynolds, Rev. L. Bodwell, F. P. Baker.
S. C. Pomeroy, Corresponding Secretary.
G. H. Fairchild, Treasurer.

Gen. Pomeroy is Chairman, and at Atchison devotes his whole time and energy, with assistants, to the receipt and distribution of all contributions of food and clothing, all of which are delivered upon requisitions of Town Committees, and are distributed through them. This organization is prompt, thorough, and effective and we advise the sending of supplies through it. Money and clothing are needed from us; food can be got in the West.

The names of our Committee appear at the head of this appeal and we hope this will be sufficient to induce co-operation. Our Treasurer is John E. Williams, President of the Metropolitan Bank, New York City. All money sent to him will be applied to the payment of Gen. Pomeroy's drafts, on account of freights and sacks. We appeal to you all, by every dictate of humanity, of honor, and of public good, to unite with us in alleviating this great calamity. There is no time to be lost.

FIRST—We ask individuals everywhere to contribute at once, and to urge it upon their friends and neighbors.

SECOND—We appeal to all churches and organized bodies to act promptly, generously, and efficiently.

THIRD—We urge upon EVERY GOVERNOR OF EVERY STATE immediately to bring this matter to the attention of their Legislatures and people. Our last statistics show that nearly $200,000 is needed within the coming fortnight, to supply this people with seed for spring planting. It can only be furnished by State action. Every consideration of interest also demands that this new State should be enabled to become self-sustaining, productive, and eventually rich—thus to fulfill her destiny, and to help others, as we are now helping her.

We ask, therefore, every Legislature to do as they would have others do to them in like distress, and at once to grant ample supplies.

All money sent to our Treasurer JOHN E. WILLIAMS, Metropolitan Bank, New York City, will be gratefully acknowledged and effectively used.

All clothing should be sent to "GEN. POMEROY, Atchison, Kansas," and freight should be prepaid.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,
IS a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says: "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."
One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Eruptive and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Blains and Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Rheumatism, Syphilitic and Mercurial Diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Debility, and, indeed, all complaints arising from vitiated or impure blood. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Cincinnati Venereal Hospital,
Established in the year 1850,
FOR THE CURE OF PRIVATE DISEASES,
And under the control of two of the most eminent Physicians in the world.
DR. E. BONAPARTE, from London and Paris Hospitals, and for the past ten years of the Cincinnati Venereal Hospital, and Dr. E. B. Reynolds, late of New York. This is the only office in the city where a permanent cure of private diseases can be obtained without the use of mercury or change of diet. Gonorrhea cured in 3 to 10 days. Strictures cured in 1 to 3 weeks. Nocturnal emissions stopped in 3 to 6 days. Seminal weakness cured in 2 to 6 weeks. Syphilis in its primary stages cured in 3 days. Secondary symptoms cured in 1 to 3 weeks. Skin diseases cured in 1 to 3 weeks. Impotency cured in 1 to 4 weeks. All diseases of a private nature treated with unparalleled success, male or female.
Dr. Bonaparte's great work on private diseases, the private guide to health, is beneficial to all, male and female; the old and young should read this book. It will enlighten those who grope in darkness. Price 25 cents, sent by mail.
Dr. Bonaparte's Celebrated Preventive never has nor never will fail—married ladies too feeble to bear children, except at the hazard of life, should be in possession of this invention. Price reduced to $5.
Dr. Bonaparte's French Patent Male Safe! It is perfectly safe; and never fails to give satisfaction. It is the only safe and sure preventive against pregnancy and disease. The price of the French Patent Male Safe is $1 the single one, $4 per half dozen, $7 per dozen. Sent by mail.
☞ Madame Lozier's Female Monthly Pills are a safe and reliable remedy for suppressions and all female diseases. Ladies should not use them during pregnancy, as they will produce miscarriage. Price $1 per box—extra fine $5—sent to any address by mail.
Drs. B. & R. are the men to consult; they are unquestionably acknowledged to be the champion and king of venereal diseases, and the only doctors who receive Monthly Reports from the old world; they have been astonished from an early age of youth to witness the various diseases which afflict mankind, and to watch the progress, through a long career of professional study, in every sphere of life, from the humble abode of poverty to the mansions of the wealthy, and having ascertained beyond a doubt the vast suffering of humanity, they determined to select the conservative system as their particular study, and to devote their whole attention to the alleviation of the diseases of these important treatises. No letters will be answered unless they contain a remittance or a postage stamp.

100,000 Acres of Land for Sale in New Mexico.
UNDER the 5th Section of an act of Congress approved July 21, 1860, confirming private Land claims in New Mexico, I have a float for sale for the above number of acres. The float can be located "in a square body on any vacant Land not mineral" in New Mexico or Arizona. As this is the only float for sale capable of location at the option of the purchaser, it affords great inducements to capitalists desiring a large body of Land adjacent to valuable mines for agriculture settlement or to protect and enter a title to towns or other places now occupied without title. The section of the act of Congress above referred to will then be sold to the highest and show the title to be undoubted. Proposals for the purchase of the entire quantity are invited until the 1st day of March, 1861. The float will then be sold to the highest responsible bidder, per acre, half cash in hand, the rest due in one year. As the title will not be made until final payment, no security will be required. Satisfactory security will be given for the making of a valid title on final payment. No attention paid to bids not accompanied with a satisfactory reference. Lands are not taxed in New Mexico. LOUISVILLE
Private Medical Dispensary,
Conducted on the European Plan,
For the Cure of all Private Diseases.
YOUTH & MANHOOD
Those afflicted with any disease of a private nature, who would escape the imposition of ignorant quacks, should not fail to read "DR. GATES'S PRIVATE MEDICAL TREATISE ON SEXUAL DISEASES," a new and revised edition of one hundred pages, handsomely illustrated with plates and engravings representing the genital organs of both sexes in a state of health and disease. Treating on all private diseases incident to both sexes, such as general nervous and seminal debility, solitary habits, seminal weakness, impotence, &c. Price by mail TEN CENTS.
DR. GATES has for many years devoted his whole time and attention to the treatment of diseases of a private nature in all their varied and complicated forms. His success in those long standing and difficult cases, such as were formerly considered incurable, is sufficient to commend him to the afflicted as worthy of the extensive practice which he has heretofore received. And he pledges to spare neither time nor expense to render himself proficient in the profession of his adoption.
Those who believe they have contracted disease should make immediate application, as, by his recent discoveries, he is enabled to cut short all cases in a few days.
YOUNG, MIDDLE-AGED, and OLD MEN, who, by indulging in solitary habits or excessive indulgence of their passions, have produced SEMINAL WEAKNESS or an ability in advance of their years, may be restored to their former health and vigor by making immediate application.
TO THE LADIES. Dr. Gates is agent for M. LA CROIX'S FRENCH PREVENTIVE POWDERS. By their use, those who, from any cause, wish to limit the number of their offspring, can do so without danger to health or constitution. Price by mail, $3 and two postage stamps.
Also, for MADAME CAPRAU'S FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS—a safe and effectual remedy for Irregularities, Obstructions, &c. Price by mail, $1 and one postage stamp.
CAUTION.—These pills should not be taken during pregnancy, as they are sure to produce miscarriage.
To persons at a distance who wish to be cured at home we will, on receipt of a brief statement of their case, send a list of such questions as we would ask on a personal interview; and, on receipt of the list filled out, we will forward medicines particularly adapted to the case, free from damage or observation, to any part of the country with full directions for use.
Consultations may be held from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. (on Sunday from 9 to 11 A. M.) at his office, northeast corner of Third and Market streets, up stairs—private entrance on Third street—Louisville, Ky.
☞ The above business will hereafter be conducted under the name and style of DR. H. G. MILLER & CO., to whom all orders and letters should be addressed. Dr. GATES can, as heretofore, be consulted personally, during business hours, on all diseases on which his book treats.
☞ Secrecy inviolable. Don't forget the name and place. All letters should be addressed to WEBSTER'S GALLERY HAS always been the leading and most successful Gallery in the West, and it is surprising to what perfection they have now brought this Beautiful Art. We were not aware until we visited this famous Gallery a few days since, and saw the walls completely covered with elegant and truly artistic gems of Portraiture, of every size and style, and all seemingly so perfectly life-like; we say that until then we had no idea that all the Messrs. Webster say in the papers is really true. But the half has not been told.

CHILDREN TEETHING.
MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers her
Soothing Syrup,
FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,
which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and Relief and Health to your Infants.
It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels and Wind Colic, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between you and your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.
Sold by Druggists throughout the world.

THE PEACE PROPOSITION.—We learn by telegraph that the Guthrie propositions, as modified, have been adopted by the Peace Congress and reported to the Senate by Mr. Crittenden. They were subsequently referred to a special committee, with instructions to report at one o'clock to-day.

MUSICAL FUND CONCERT.—The third of the series of concerts for the season, under the auspices of the Musical Fund Society, will be given this evening at the Masonic Temple. There are eight orchestral and three vocal selections in the programme. We are to have the overtures to Weber's Oberon and Bellini's Il Pirata, the allegro from Beethoven's Symphony No. 2, the Cricket and Cuckoo Polka, "When the Swallows," with horn obligato, the Star Spangled Banner, and other national melodies, a solo on the flageolette, and Neumann's gallop "La Postillion d'Amour." Stigelli's tenor song "The Brightest Eyes," the letter duett from the Barber of Seville, and a ballad will be sung in addition. We anticipate the same crowded attendance which has honored the previous concerts.

We see that the managers, at the earnest solicitation of many of their regular subscribers, request those who desire to retire before the concert is over, to do so before the commencement of the last overture, and not to disturb the audience during the performance of the same. This suggestion is most opportune, for our good people have fallen into the very bad habit of leaving before the close of a concert so that it is impossible to hear the last piece which is generally intended to be the great attraction of the evening.

UNION MEETING IN THE SEVENTH WARD.—At a meeting of the citizens of the Seventh Ward, held at the Relief Engine House last evening, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Ward offices, and to select delegates to a convention for the city at large, Mr. A. A. Harvey was called to the chair and Mr. Jos. B. Read was appointed Secretary. The chair having explained the objects of the convocation as above, Judge Joyes addressed the meeting, opposing the convention system, and declaring himself in favor of the principle of allowing every one, who so desired, to become a candidate before the people. When the Judge had finished his remarks, the meeting proceeded to the nomination of Ward officers, which resulted as follows: For Councilmen, T. C. Pomeroy and H. A. Griswold; for School Trustee, George W. Morris. The meeting then adjourned without electing delegates to a city convention.

CITIZENS MEETING IN THE SIXTH WARD.—There was a meeting of the citizens of the Sixth Ward at the City Court-room last evening to appoint delegates to the proposed city convention and nominate Ward candidates. Mr. Henry L. Pope was called to the chair and Mr. R. A. Hamilton was appointed Secretary. The meeting then proceeded to nominate candidates, with the following result: For Alderman, Jas. Trabue; for Councilmen, John Barbee and Dr. Middleton Goldsmith; for School Trustee, Sandford Duncan. The nominations, we believe, were made with acclamation. The following delegates were appointed to represent the Ward in the contemplated city convention. W. F. Barrett, H. L. Pope, S. S. Meddis, W. H. Goddard, Jas. Trabue, John Barbee, Sandford Duncan, and S. S. Bush.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—About 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening, George W. Jones, the carrier of the New Albany Ledger, had two of his ribs on the right side broken by falling from the boiler deck to the forecastle of the steamer Mariner at this city. The Ledger says Mr. Jones has been in the habit of going to Louisville in the evening and remaining till morning, bringing with him Louisville papers for distribution. When the boat landed he started to go ashore, and missing the stairs, walked off the guard, falling a distance of about fifteen feet. He was taken into the cabin, where he remained until yesterday morning when he was taken to his residence in New Albany, and had his injuries cared for. He will be confined to this room about two weeks.

PROF. RICE'S VALEDICTORY. — We heard, in the valedictory address of Prof. Rice, at the Kentucky School of Medicine, last evening, an able vindication of the Profession against the charge of infidelity so often brought against it. The lecture was able and eloquent, replete with sense, humor, and touching appeal, wherein Prof. Rice exhibited the qualities of the ripe and accomplished scholar, the clear and forcible logician, the keen wit, and the polished orator. We were pleased to meet so large and appreciative an audience. The vast amphitheatre of this flourishing institution was crowded to overflowing with the beauty and gallantry of the city.

CITIZENS' MEETING IN THE FIRST WARD.—At a meeting of the citizens of the First Ward, held at Schwind's Exchange last evening Mr. John Kurfiss was called to the Chair and Mr. J. R. Watts was appointed Secretary. It was moved that the following resolutions, adopted by the Second Ward, at the meeting on Tuesday evening, be also adopted by this meeting. After some debate the resolutions were unanimously adopted.

CYCLORAMA OF IRELAND.—MacEvoy's celebrated scenes from Ireland will be exhibited for the first time in this city to-morrow evening at Mozart Hall. The critics endorse the work as one of peculiar merit, and the vocal and instrumental music accompanying the exhibition is said to be most charming. An entertainment will be given on Satuaday afternoon for the accommodation of schools and families.

☞ A night or two ago a fellow stopped at the Depaw House in New Albany and asked the privilege of sleeping in a chair in the office until morning. The privilege was granted, and on the following morning before daylight, while the porter was absent from the office for a few moments the fellow took the hat and a pair of new pants of the latter individual and left for parts unknown.

THE HOLMAN TROUPE.—The admiration which our citizens entertain for this talented troupe falls little short of enthusiasm. We have never seen Mozart Hall more densely crowded than it was on the occasion of their matinee yesterday afternoon. Sallie, the little charmer, gained new laurels, and petite Julia was heartily applauded whenever she appeared.

☞We have heard the name of Harvy Stuckey mentioned in connection with the Auditor's place in the city. No one in our community stands higher for strict integrity and business qualification than Mr. Stuckey, and no one, we are sure, would fill the place with more credit to himself and advantage to the city if elected.

RAILROADERS IN THE CITY.—Gen. P. W. Strader and Gen. J. N. Kinney, of the Little Miami Railroad, and Mr. H. H. Lewis, of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, are in the city at present, the guests of their friend Captain H. H. Buchanan.

FINE TOBACCO. — A hogshead of tobacco was sold yesterday at the Ninth-street warehouse at the rate of thirteen dollars per hundred. It was from the plantation of Henry Bull, Esq., of Owen county, Ky., and was a fine specimen of the staple.

THEATRE.—This evening Miss Sallie St. Clair makes her last appearance but one, and will perform her favorite part in the beautiful drama of Green Bushes, or the Hunters of the Mississippi. The drama of the Fireman will also be acted.

A FEMININE THIEF.—Ann Carson, a notorious woman, who has just served a term in the penitentiary, was arrested in this city yesterday on the charge of stealing a set of furs and a lot of clothing from a store.

☞Mr. Weddell, of Jeffersonville, eloped with a Miss Jenks, of New Albany, yesterday, and the happy couple were married against the wishes of the young lady's friends.

ARREST.—Billy South, a servant at the National Hotel, was struck on the head with a club by a fellow-servant last evening. The assaulting party was arrested.

HOMICIDE IN ILLINOIS.—A correspondent informs us that an affray occurred in Brown county, Ill., on Saturday last, between a Mississippian named Langford and a man named Hewlitt, of Schuyler county, Ill., in which Hewlitt was mortally wounded. Politics gave rise to the quarrel. Hewlett struck Langford with a stick, when the latter drew his pistol and fired upon his adversary. Langford surrendered himself up. Our correspondent says it is the impression that the killing was done in self-defence.

CELEBRATION AT DANVILLE.—The birth day of Washington was appropriately celebrated by the literary societies of Centre College, at Danville, Ky. Three orations were delivered, the concluding one by Mr. Robert W. Hays, of this city, who did himself and the Chamberlain Society, great credit. This subject was the Drama of American History, and in the midst of the discourse a young belle of Danville presented the orator a beautiful satin flag.

HAL'S TRAVELS IN EUROPE, EGYPT, AND THE HOLY LAND.—We have received from the author, Mr. A. R. Wiggs, formerly editor of the Huntsville Independent, this volume, which records a twelvemonth's tour during which "he saw many wonderful things and a vast deal of fun." Mr. Wiggs ("Hal") was a companion of Mr. James E. Tyler of this city, whose interesting letters we published last spring and summer. J. P. Morton has the book for sale.

THE BRITISH REVIEWS.—We do not believe that many of our literary friends are without Leonard Scott & Co.'s reprint of Blackwood's Magazine and the four British Reviews. If however any have failed to subscribe at the commencement of the year, they can still repair their fault by remitting ten dollars to New York for the whole set. He who reads Blackwood, the London Quarterly, the Westminster, the North British, and the Edinburg, will have a comprehensive, enlarged, and valuable epitome of all that is going on in the world of literature, art, science, religion, politics, history, and romance.

TWIGGS' TREACHERY.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette states that Twiggs's traitorous conduct in surrendering the Government property in Texas was based on private revenge against the Government for supplanting him, in the appointment of Col. Waite, when it became known that Twiggs intended to have a conference with the Texas Commissioners on the disposition of the property of the federal government. Twiggs gave orders to every officer in command of a post in the military department of Texas, seventeen in number, including San Antonio, the headquarters, to surrender to the agents of the revolutionary State Convention, without a single man being in arms to enforce the State's demands, every particle of the military property there, amounting in the aggregate to millions of dollars, including arms, accoutrements, provisions, horses, cattle, wagons, &c.

Advices received at Washington represent that among the terms was a stipulation reserving officers their side-arms, and another saying that the disarmed troops were to be permitted to be carried to the coast for shipment out of Texas in government wagons, which were subsequently to be accounted for to the revolutionists. The whole number of enlisted troops under Twiggs's command in Texas was 2,900, and they were scattered about for the most part, over a frontier of fifteen hundred miles. There are nearly all the officers belonging to four regiments, all the Third Infantry, all the Eighth Infantry, all the Second Cavalry, five companies of the First Artillery, five of the First Infantry, making forty companies in all—embracing 206 commissioned officers and 2,900 enlisted men, being more than are in any other one department in the service.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Times states that Mr. Lincoln was advised to take the course he did by the authorities of Baltimore, in order to avoid the obtrusive attentions of a set of pretended political friends, whose character and general reputation did not afford sufficient warrant for their good behavior, and that the motive for the advice was to save the city from the reproach of proceedings which there was too much reason to fear would take place at his reception.

FIRE IN JEFFERSONVILLE.—The stable of Mr. Howard, in Jeffersonville, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday night.

DECISION OF THE COURT OF APPEALS.

FRANKFORT, Jan. 22, 1861.

Wm. L. Weller, appellant, vs. Franklin Savings Ins., appellee. Appeal from Louisville Chancery Court.

The Court being sufficiently advised, delivered the following opinion herein:

The appellant brought his action in the court below, charging that in November, 1858, he had purchased at a sale made by the Marshal of the Louisville Chancery Court, a certain lot with its improvements, on Green street in said city, at the price of $8,000, payable in four equal payments of $750 each, at six, twelve, eighteen, and twenty-four months, for which he executed his notes carrying interest from date.

That on the 25th day of July, 1859, he sold and conveyed said property to appellees for the sum of $7,000; that three of the notes which he had given for the purchase money, with the interest, were unpaid. These notes appellees were to pay and take up, amounting on that day to $2,345 93; that he was to take an acceptance which appellees held on R. H. Short & Co., of New Orleans, for $4,000, drawn by one Hammond, and the balance appellees were to pay in cash to make up the $7,000.

He charges that, on the day upon which he made the sale, appellees procured a deed to be written for the property; that he acknowledged the deed that day, and his wife executed and acknowledged it on the next day, and the same was admitted to record in the proper office; that the cash payment was acknowledged to have been received in said deed, but it never was paid; that appellees failed to pay and take up his notes for that part of purchase money falling due 9th of November, 1859, as they were bound to do, but he has been compelled to pay the same, and the other two notes were unpaid—he offers to take said acceptance for $4,000 and to make any further conveyance to appellees of said property. He says it is necessary, and asks that appellees be compelled to pay the money, for an enforcement of his lien upon the property, &c.—he filed a copy of the deed as part of his petition.

Appellees in their answer deny having made or authorized to be made a purchase of the property, that they made no contract with appellant about such property, and never authorized such contract to be made for them; that the President and Cashier of said institution about the 25th of July, 1859, were informed of the protest of a bill they held, drawn by Samuel Hammond on R. H. Short & Co., of New Orleans, and by them accepted, which bill matured about the 18th of July, 1859, and that Hammond falsely and fraudulently represented to their Cashier that the failure of Short & Co. was "a bad failure" "when it was not so, and Hammond knew it," and that said Short & Co. were solvent, able to pay said bill, and that Hammond knew it; but they say, relying upon the false representations of said Hammond, the President and Cashier negotiated for the purchase of the property at the price of $7,000 with said Hammond and not appellant, who they charge was not the owner of the property, but was only the holder of the legal title, or only held a lien upon it for some advanced payments which he had made, and of that they have no information sufficient to form a belief. That the "negotiations" "were never carried into any contract and neither the defendant or any one authorized by them to do so ever accepted the plaintiff's deed for the property or caused it to be drawn, executed or recorded."

That, on discovering the fraud as before stated, said president, on the 1st of August, 1859, notified said plaintiff, or caused him to be notified, that his deed was not accepted, and offered a reconveyance according to the form which they file or any other that may be approved by the court; and they say that they render it "with a protest that their rights as a creditor of Hammond (who really owns the property, subject perhaps to some liens) shall not be prejudiced thereby."

2. Appellant excepted to the depositions of Gallagher and O'Leary because they were interested and incompetent, and excepted to their statements so far as they detail conversations of Hammond not in his presence, and to the deposition of Dyer because of his incompetency and of the insufficiency of the certificate of the examiner before whom it was taken.

The Chancellor ruled that Gallagher and O'Leary were competent witnesses, but sustained the exception to so much of their depositions as proved the charter and by-laws of appellees and proved the statements of Hammond made to them in the absence of appellant, and sustained the exceptions to and suppressed Dyer's deposition.

Gallagher and O'Leary were most unquestionably competent witnesses, sec. 675 of Civil Code making them so in the most direct and positive terms. As has been repeatedly held by this court, no exception was taken to the ruling of the court in sustaining the other exceptions to the depositions, and that opinion of the Chancellor cannot be inquired into by this court.

It is not pretended that at the time the negotiations were going on, or when the sale was made, that appellant was present. He neither made any representation to appellee upon the subject of the ability of Short & Co to pay the draft, nor did he hear or know what Hammond said upon the subject. He was at home sick, and so far from having practiced any fraud, either by himself or any one for him, Hammond was made the agent of appellees to go to him and learn whether he would sell them the property and take up the draft, and to learn the price at which he would sell. He communicated his terms to them through Hammond, and never saw them until after the sale was made and the deed written.

But looking to the evidence of Hammond alone for what occurred at the time of the sale, and he is the only witness on that point (the evidence of Gallagher and O'Leary being excluded), it does not appear that there was a word said in relation to the ability of Short & Co. to pay the draft that was not strictly true, or that appellees were not as well informed upon these subjects as Hammond and appellant were. O'Leary proved that about the 25th of April, 1859, Hammond informed him that Short & Co. had published a circular to their correspondents, in which they stated that they would not meet their drafts, but on account of the dullness of sales of tobacco they intended to pay their drafts so in pro rata, and that Hammond showed him an account of their sales. The truth of these statements made by Hammond is not called in question. Appellant made no representations, and only did what appellees and Hammond desired him to do, and the charge of fraud is wholly unsustained by the proof.

We will now proceed to the consideration of the power of the President and Cashier to make the purchase of the property.

By an act of the Legislature, approved 1st of March, 1850, appellees were incorporated and had conferred upon them all the rights and privileges of the Banks of the State except that they were not permitted to issue paper as a circulating medium. Ses. Acts, 1849-50, 230.

The Bank of Kentucky by the act of incorporation has full power and authority to acquire, hold, possess, use, occupy, and enjoy, and to sell, convey, and dispose of all such real estate, goods, effects, and chattels as shall be convenient for the transaction of its business or which may be conveyed to said Bank as surety for any debt, or which may be received in discharge of any debt, or purchased in satisfaction of any judgment or decree in favor of the Bank, or in the purchase of any property on which said Bank may have a lien."

The mode of electing the board of directors is prescribed by said act and they are authorized to appoint a President, Cashier, and as many officers and agents as may be necessary to carry out the objects for which the Bank was created.

The Northern Bank of Kentucky and the Louisville Bank have like powers, they are all required to keep a record of their proceedings, and by the charter of some if not all of these Banks, the President, Cashier, Clerks, and Tellers are required to take an oath for the faithful discharge of their duties.

The power of appellees to receive real estate in discharge of debts to them is beyond all question, and the next inquiry is: Had their officers and agents, viz: their President and Cashier, any authority to negotiate the trade for the property of appellant? And did they or either of them make the trade? Appellees deal in exchange, loan money, buy bills of exchange, and do all the business which banks can do, except that they cannot issue paper as a circulating medium; to do this business they must have agents—they have a President and Cashier, and they are their accredited agents, to negotiate loans, to receive and pay out money, and settle with their debtors. Payments made to either would be binding upon the appellees. They have a draft on Short & Co. drawn by Hammond, which has been dishonored—protested for non-payment. Short & Co. and Hammond at a very considerable distance from them. Hammond, it may be presumed, lived in the same city in which they did business; and his ability to take up the draft known to them. The President and Cashier called upon him to make some arrangement in relation to the draft and ask him what he can do? His reply was that his only hope to arrange it was by the aid of appellant; these officers urge him to see appellant immediately to know whether he will lend him his name and take up the draft. Hammond went to the appellant, got his terms, and appellees, through their officers, who had done all the business, agreed to appellant's proposition to take lot and improvements at $7,000, the draft to go in as $4,000 paid. After the terms of the sale were agreed upon the attorney of appellees, who had been retained by them to consult with and direct them as their legal adviser, was called upon and directed to prepare a deed for appellant and his wife to sign immediately. He prepared the deed and the clerk was sought after and urged by the President or Cashier to go and take the acknowledgment of appellant and his wife that evening. This was after the usual business hours and after the clerk had left his office. Appellant acknowledged the deed that evening, but his wife was from home and her acknowledgement was not obtained. Next morning a deputy clerk was sent to appellant and his wife's acknowledgement taken.

It cannot be doubted that appellees, by their President, consulted their attorney upon the subject of the trade. He must have been familiar with the power and authority of the President, and he expressed no doubt of his power to make the negotiation, so far as we are informed. The President neither doubts nor hesitates, but presses the matter to its consummation, and after the deed was executed, retained it for six days without any doubt or dissatisfaction. It is not proved, but it may be assumed, that the Board of Directors all reside in the city, and if there had been any doubt upon the question of authority, the Directors could have been convened in a few hours and the authority conferred. The act of incorporation does not prescribe what particular business or duties shall be performed by the President or Cashier. The Board of Directors appoint these officers, prescribe their duties, and must know how they discharge them. All acts done in the course of business of the corporation usually confided to such officers must be deemed prima facie, to have been done by their authority.

The power to transact this business could have been conferred by a mere vote of the Board of Directors, without the corporate seal, even if they have any, and if he transcended his authority, and the Board disapproved the act, it should have been repudiated by the Board.

In the present case appellees, through their President and Cashier (for they both acted in the business), contract to take real estate in payment of a debt, have the deed prepared by their own attorney, keep it six days, and, when sued for the money, deny the authority of their officers to make a contract, but fail to produce the record of their own proceedings, which is the very best evidence of the powers they have conferred upon these officers, to show the extent of their authority. They offer no evidence whatever that the Board of Directors has repudiated this act; but risk the case on the statements in the answer.

The President who made the contract is still retained in that position by the Board without censure, and is the prominent party in defending this suit, insisting that he violated his duty, transcended his authority, and asks the Court to relieve his employers from the consequence of this unlawful and unauthorized acts. Do common justice and an enlightened administration of the law require this to be done? We think not. But think the presumption, from all the facts in this case, should be indulged that the purchase of the property by the President was the exercise of an authority which had been conferred upon him by the Board, and was ratified by their subsequent acts.

The judgment of the Court below is therefore reversed, and cause remanded that judgment may be rendered for appellant against appellees for the amount claimed in the petition and for further proceedings consistent with this opinion.

No lien is reserved in the deed by appellant on the property for the purchase money and he has none.

ASTOUNDING REVELATIONS FROM THE WORLD OF SPIRITS.

To the Editors of the Memphis Bulletin:

I have been an obstinate skeptic in the new faith of spiritualism until recently. Having been somewhat instrumental in inducing an eminent spiritualist in New York to visit our city, I availed myself of the earliest opportunity to be present at one of his experimental exhibitions at the residence of a gentleman well known to be a liberal and intelligent patron of the science. On my entrance into the room I found the paraphernalia of the Professor complete, with his stenographic implements on the table.

After the usual ceremony of introduction, I asked the Professor if I could be permitted to commune with the spirit of a departed friend or acquaintance, personally or historically. He promptly answered in the affirmative. I then remarked that as our country was passing through a very extraordinary political ordeal, I was anxious to know what sensation it was making among some of the distinguished worthies whose memories are still cherished with admiration by their posterity. I then proposed that an old, faithful, and intelligent servant of Mr. Jefferson, of the name of Martin, be summoned to the stand. In a moment the electrical pen of the Professor was nervously excited, and dashed along the paper with almost the speed of lightning, rapidly detailing the marriage of his master with a beautiful and accomplished widow—that on the marriage they set out for Monticello—encountered on the way a snow three feet deep—were detained on the road—reached home late—found no fires and nothing to eat, and bore the horrible dreariness with all the equanimity of a new married couple; that his master had a great passion for the fiddle, and played three hours a day; that when his house was burnt down, and all his papers were destroyed he smiled with exultation that his fiddle was saved; that he was a bold expert rider—and that when he heard the tramp of Tarleton's Cavalry approaching Charlottsville he mounted a fleet horse and rode off to Carter's mountain—that he himself played the hero in standing the fire of the whole enemy. That his master retired in disgust to his farm—saying, no slave could be farther from happiness than the minister of a Commonwealth—that he amused himself with the garden and farm—and sought his happiness in his books and domestic objects—that it always made his master mad to hear any one called by the name of his Excellency, Worship, Honor, Esquire—that every man should sit on his own stool, and carve his own bacon.

When his excellent mistress died, he suddenly changed his mind, and Gen. Washington persuaded him away from Monticello to console his grief, and that he went along with him to where the Congress meets, and saw many of the great men about Gen. Washington's house—Gen. Hamilton, Gen. Knox, Aaron Burr, Benjamin Franklin, and many others whose names he does not remember. The people soon began to say that his master was a great favorite of the General's, and that Gen. Hamilton was jealous of him; that he came into his master's chamber one day, while he was there; that they soone got into a warm, angry talk, something about the assumption bill and the claims of the old soldiers; that his master was much displeased at what the General said, and told him that the old soldiers who had shed their blood for the liberties of their country should not be cheated out of their claims by the speculator, and then they had a high quarrel about what Gen. Hamilton called a great bank, that bothered and fretted General Washington very much. After a long rumpus, the General got up and left the room. On closing the door, something dropped out of his pocket; he picked it up and handed it to his master, who, on opening it, exclaimed it was a love letter, and that he was a great rascal after women. He read it out: "to se her dear Col. harmilton, she is Alone and he will rite to her, whos gratest fault is Loving him, and will clear up her doupts, els he will leve her. with her breast the seate of mutch woe!" My old Scotch mistress, with her white muslin cap on, had she been present, would have said she was a "dawmed villain!" Does he kiss and tell? He must not forget to mention that his master, after this, went as Minister to France, and after he came home, used to tell a funny story about a dispute he had with a French philosopher who wrote a book about animals, who was simple enough to say the Buffalo had no horns, and, to convince him, his master wrote to a Yankee friend to send him the hide and horns of one. After my master came home the people made Mr. Adams President and him Vice-President; and his master was in the habit, when among his friends, of saying he was rejoiced that he had escaped the splendid misery of being President. He and Mr. Madison were always a good deal together, and he could see that they wrote a good many papers, which the people talked much about, and quarreled much about the meaning of them; and all that he remembered was some big words about the rights of the States. It was not long before my master got the upper hand of Mr. Adams, because he ordered all the foreigners out of the country, and Gen. Hamilton, too, with all the Federalists to back him.

All the world knows that my master was elected President, and Aaron Burr Vice President, and that my master had very hard thoughts about Burr's conduct; that designing men made him believe that he was a traitor—that his scheme was to draw off the Western States, and make himself king or dictator. But after they both came to the land of spirits they became reconciled to each other. My master acknowledged that he had been deceived, and that there were now many worse men living on earth than Burr, and all the good spirits say that he is even better at heart than Gen. Hamilton. My Master, Gen. Washington, and Gen. Jackson, have been for many years on the most friendly terms, always meet in the most cheerful temper, and talk pleasantly about the glorious Union they left, and how much they did to make it great and happy. And my master always repeats, at the close of every conversation, the words, "If our friends we left on earth would weigh the blessings they will throw away against an abstract principle, more likely to be affected by Union than by secession, they would pause before they would perpetrate this act of suicide on themselves, and of treason against the hopes of the world."

Near about three months ago, about noon, when my master was sitting in one of his philosophical moods, tracing some lines on a large map spread on a table, he was suddenly startled by a rumbling noise, and in a moment or two the table was upset by a violent shock, and he exclaimed in a tone of consternation, "Martin, it is really an earthquake." In a few minutes the land of spirits was overshadowed with darkness, and the whole atmosphere filled with a strong smell of sulphur and coal oil. In a few hours the atmosphere cleared off, and in a short time General Jackson was seen striding up, with rage and fury in his eye; and, when he approached within about ten steps, he made a sudden halt, and exclaimed at the pitch of his voice, "Mr. Jefferson, by the Eternal! the devil is to play on earth—the happy land we left—I wish I was there, at the Capital, seated in the White House; I would have blown the city of Charleston to atoms before these renegade rascals had passed their ordinance of secession. I would have ordered Old Buck home to Harrisburg, and told Lincoln not to leave Springfield for the Capital until he had all those mean nigger laws repealed, and settled at once and forever on the land where the negro and white man were to live and work;" and then, in a stentorian voice, he called out, "Where is that man John C. Calhoun, who is the author of this mischief and hellfire on earth?" But Mr. Calhoun was not to be seen. The old hero having exhausted his rage, and all around him quaking with fear, he retired to his lair. In a short while Mr. Calhoun was seen walking hurriedly up, and accosted my master in a nervous, tremulous tone of voice, "Thank God, Mr. Jefferson, that I did not live to witness the sad catastrophe on earth. The era of good feeling, I fear, is gone forever. The doctrine of masterly inactivity I impressed on my friends on earth is contemned and trodden under foot. Had I never been treated so harshly by General Jackson, had he not insulted me and my family because my wife would not exchange visiting cards with Mrs. Eaton, I never should have advised my people in Carolina to nullify the laws of Congress. In deep repentance I confess to you that I now stand amid the darkness of the storm, solitary and alone, terrified at the whelming waves of revolution that are now dashing our glorious Union on the breakers of anarchy and treason. He walked off, hermit like, to his seclusion. A tall, gaunt figure was seen at a distance, bald headed and no hat on; his coat buttoned close up to his chin; his long woolen stockings drawn over his pants above his knees. He tottered along until he approached to speaking distance; he stopped, and stretched out his long, withered hand, his forefinger looking like a poisoned arrow. In a shrill tone he cried out, "Mr. Jefferson, no man ever had such constituents as I had. I rejoice to learn that the Old Dominion, the mother of Washington—of you and me—is still in the Union. She will never desert the star spangled banner—nor be foolishly provoked to dash the splendid rock of our Union into fragments, for the mere pleasure of mending them again with liquid glue. I say, Mr. Jefferson, no man ever had such constituents as I had. Every star may drop one by one from the firmament of heaven, the sun may stand still or set in darkness; but the Old Dominion—the mother of statesmen and of myself—will yet survive the wreck of matter and crash of worlds. O tempores, O mores!" He had scarcely retired, with a kind of grim satisfaction, when a peerless looking figure was seen at a distance, advancing with a majestic, solemn stride. The august spirit of the same matchless being, in the great arena of debate on earth, as he came near, all the good spirits around, could perceive that he was in great agony of mind. The reception my master gave him, showed at once that he regarded him as the noblest Roman of them all. [The haunts of Washington and Clay were known from all the other spirits by cherubims continually hovering over them.] With the old fire kindling into fierce action, he instantly awed all around into silence. Mr. Jefferson, what does this dreadful turmoil on earth mean? You know, while living, I tried to give a colossal state to the power and grandeur of our Union. Exulting in the renown of my country, the preservation of the Union was my Polar star. Twice was I triumphant against the vandals and Jacobins. This we have been warned of the sad news on earth; by one of nature's awful phenomenas. I could never have credited the fact, that in this enlightened age, in a free, popular Republic, where the people govern, that any single State should rush into conflict with all the rest, and thus break up and destroy the world's hope! My daily prayer is, that the Union will yet be saved by the patriotic efforts of my old friends on earth—Crittenden, Douglas, Everett, Bell, and Alexander Stephens. The good spirits rushed up and embraced him, and he retired amid hozannahs.

So soon as Mr. Clay entered, my master enquired for the godlike Webster. The disturbance in the elements had called him out of his sequestered spot, and he was soon conducted by a procession of good spirits to the presence of my master. He seemed to be in a very dreamy mood, but so soon as he was informed that Mr. Clay had been roused up by the sad news from earth, his colossal brow was at once electrified, and he uttered the solemn words, "Mr. Jefferson, when we recount the blessings of Union, when we dwell upon the past, and sketch out, in bright perspective, the future, they awaken in my heart all the pride of an American. The flag which I wish to wave over me is that which floated in triumph at Saratoga and Yorktown. Yes, sir, the Federal Union must be preserved." At the writing of these last words the pen of the professor jumped violently from his hand, and fell about ten feet from the table on the floor, and thus ended the first chapter of remarkable revelations.

Col. McMahon, you cannot but perceive the singular coincidence in the first part of these revelations and the last; and as the first are verified by truthful history, the latter cannot but command your implicit credence. I will further add that several respectable citizens of Memphis were present at the exhibition, who will testify the same; and I am willing myself to make affidavit to the truth of these revelations.

PYTHAGORAS.

To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

GENTLEMEN: Whilst confined to my house by sickness some of my friends have announced me as a candidate for the Judgeship of the Court of Appeals, made vacant by the death of the Hon. H. C. Wood. Many friends in various parts of the district have addressed me letters urging me to approve the act. In answer to these communications I now say that I am not and will not be a candidate. To them and to my friends here who have so ardently urged my promotion I return my sincere thanks.

Very respectfully, &c.,
f26 d&w P. B. MUIR.

To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

In perilous times like these it behooves every loyal citizen to sacrifice, in a measure, his private interest for the public weal; and, as we are upon the eve of the election for the highest municipal office in our city, i. e. the Mayoralty, a man of known ability, honor, and integrity is needed to occupy so responsible a position. I therefore suggest the name of one of the most loyal Union men in the city as a candidate for the votes of ALL OF THE PEOPLE in this city for the office of Mayor, and that name is Wm. B. Belknap.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 27, 1861. CLERK.

☞The Louisville Courier is very eulogistic upon Jeff. Davis, but it is distance that lends enchantment to the view which our neighbor takes of the happy family of the Southern Confederacy. Nearer home, Mr. Davis, his position, and the new government, are sneered at and denounced. In his own State, the Natchez Courier says:

So far from the news of the appointment of Mr. Davis as Provisional President being received with alacrity, it was received with regret. Neither in character nor in politics has he any hold upon the confidence of the people. He has at last attained what he has been struggling for for ten years past—a Presidency. We may admire the ingenuity with which he has attained his object, and yet despise the tricks by which he has crawled to it.

There was no sound of rejoicing here at Natchez either on account of the formation of such a Southern Confederacy or the appointment of such rulers. The words sprung too often from one to another, "Are we to have no showing? Are the people to have no choice? Can a Convention alter Constitutions? impose taxes? appoint Constitution-makers? inaugurate Presidents? Are they oligarchs, and are we nothing?" And each citizen had to confess that there was no reply to these questions. We live under an oligarchy that has not yet dared to trust the people with a say as to its consent. Right as the South is upon the great question at issue, its position has been compromitted by the events of the last two months. The consent of the governed is an essential element of government. The people of the Southwest might have voted for all that has been done, but their consent has not yet been either asked or obtained.

☞Henry Clay spoke as follows concerning a prominent secessionist. The extract is according to the reported debates of 1850 in Benton's Abridgment, vol. 16, p. 581:

Mr. President: I said nothing with respect to the character of Mr. Rhett, for I might as well name him. But if he pronounced a sentiment attributed to him, of raising the standard of disunion and of resistance to the common government, whatever he has been, if he follows up that declaration by corresponding overt acts, he will be a traitor, and I HOPE HE WILL MEET THE FATE OF A TRAITOR. [Great applause in the galleries, with difficulty suppressed by the Chair.]

On the same occasion the Great Kentuckian spoke thus of disunion and his duty to the Union as contrasted with his allegiance to his State:

Mr. President: I have heard with pain and regret a confirmation of the remark I made, that the sentiment of disunion is becoming familiar. I hope it is confined to South Carolina. I do not regard as my duty what the honorable Senator seems to regard as his. If Kentucky to-morrow unfurls the banner of resistance, I never will fight under that banner. I owe a paramount allegiance to the whole Union—a subordinate one to my own State.

☞The following language, credited to James K. Polk, is the motto which has been chosen by the McMinuville (Tenn.) "People's Paper," and that motto floats at its mast head:

"No treason to mankind since the organization of society would be equal in atrocity to that of him who would lift his hand to destroy the Union."

DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS.

CITIZENS' AND WORKINGMEN'S REFORM MUNICIPAL CONVENTION—At Odd Fellows' Hall, on Friday Morning, March 1.—The delegates from the several Citizens' and Workingmen's Union Associations will meet in Convention, at 10 o'clock A. M., on Friday, the 1st of March, at Odd Fellows' Hall, on Jefferson street, below First.

A CONSUMPTIVE LIFE SAVED.— Consumption primarily and essentially due to a disordered nutrition, can be rationally attacked only by medicines which renovate the nutritive powers. Such a medicine is the PERUVIAN SYRUP, whose chief ingredient acts directly and immediately on the blood, and arrests the diseases safely and surely:

BALTIMORE, July 15, 1854.

I was suffering with a severe Catarrhal Cough, accompanied by Nightsweats, loss of Appetite and great Debility, which was daily increasing. In this state I commenced taking the Peruvian Syrup. In a few days, and before I had used the second bottle, my cough lessened, night sweats ceased, appetite was restored, and with it strength and vigor beyond what I had enjoyed for ten years, being able to walk several miles each day without fatigue, while hitherto I could walk only a short distance. A. S. KELLOGG.

☞ Peruvian Syrup is a solution of protoxide of iron, a new discovery in medicine, and strikes at the root of disease by producing healthy blood, the source of all vitality in the human organism.

A CARD.
UNITED STATES HOTEL, Oct. 2, 1860
To Mr. Hugh Wilkins:

The carpet lining put down for us by you is the only thing of the kind that we have ever seen that we would care to have put under our carpets. So much are we pleased with it, that we would be very unwilling to have another carpet (old or new) put down without it. The difference between a room where it is used and where it is not is so striking as to arrest the attention of the most unobservant. It is worth more than its cost in the increased softness and pleasantness it gives the carpet, and we think you overrate its economy in stating that it adds one-half to the carpet's wear.

If our recommendation of it will add anything to your sales, we cheerfully give it, feeling we do your customers a much greater kindness than we do you. HALL & HARRIS.

STIMULATING ONGUENT
For the Whiskers and Hair

The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States that they have obtained the Agency for and are now enabled to offer to the American public the above justly celebrated and world-renowned article

THE STIMULATING ONGUENT

Is prepared by Dr. C. P. BELLINGHAM, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of

in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure BALDNESS, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn RED or tow hair DARK, and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth, and flexible. The "ONGUENT" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

Price One Dollar a box—For sale by all Druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "Onguent" (warranted to have the desired effect) will be sent to any who desire it, by mail direct, securely packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1 18. Apply to or address

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ We would refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator and Cathartic Pills in another column. ja12 deod&weowly

☞The closing years of life are often rendered wretched by ailments which are trifling in themselves and easily cured if taken in time. Affections of the liver, stomach, and other organs concerned in digestion are the most frequent. They naturally make the sufferer nervous, irritable, and complaining, and relatives and friends are forced to bear the brunt of their ill-humor. The use of Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters will prove an efficient remedy for this evil. It will not only strengthen the whole physical organization, but entirely cure the most obstinate cases of Indigestion, Diarrhea, Dysentery, and Liver Complaint. The first physicians in the country are loud in their praise of this preparation. Another recommendation of the Bitters is that it is so palatable to the taste that it may be used even as a beverage.

Sold by all druggists. f3 dlm

NEW CONFECTIONERY AND RESTAURANT.

MONS. J. PARGNY begs leave to announce to his friends and public generally that his arrangements are at length completed, and the various departments of his business are fully organized.

The Ladies' Restaurant is a new feature in this city, and Mons. Pargny pledges himself that it shall be conducted in the most orderly and unexceptionable manner. The entrance is through the Confectionery, and the utmost care will be taken that the persons admitted shall be only such as the most fastidious cannot object to. All the delicacies of the season, together with sherbets, ices, &c., are always on hand, winter and summer.

The Confectionery is supplied with everything that can tempt the eye or please the taste. Many of the articles have never before been offered for sale in this city. Bar is kept, but the purest and finest of liquors are furnished to the guests at the tables. Every article and every dish which is within reach of the resources of the cook can be had, from a slice of American Ham to a patè de fois gras. Mons. Pargny flatters himself that his cuisine is equal to any in America. Thankful for past favors, he hopes by attention and politeness to merit a continuance of the same.

Parties, private and public Dinners, Suppers, &c., will be supplied in the best manner, and on reasonable terms, either at the Restaurant or elsewhere. f18 b6tf

XXXVIth CONGRESS—SECOND SESSION.
Wednesday's Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

Senate.—Mr. Crittenden presented a number of petitions for the preservation of the Union.

Messrs. Trumbull and Wilson presented petitions against compromise.

Mr. Ten Eycke presented petitions of citizens of New Jersey for the Union, asking amendments to the Constitution to prevent the secession of any of the States except South Carolina, which shall be allowed to go as often as she chooses.

Mr. Sumner presented petitions of citizens of Pennsylvania for the repeal of all laws for carrying the mails on Sunday—Also, one for the repeal of the fugitive slave law.

Mr. Bigler presented petitions in favor of the Crittenden resolutions, and others in favor of the Border State resolutions.

House.—Mr. Morris, of Illinois, offered a resolution that the select committee on abstracted bonds be and is hereby invested with full power to examine witnesses as to Wm. H. Russell, or any person for him who has directly or indirectly paid money to any officer of the United States, or any person to assist him in obtaining contracts or allowances from the Government, or assisting him in the transaction of business with the same.

Mr. Burnett suggested an amendment, that any person charged shall be so notified, and have a right to examine witnesses. The proceedings should not be inquisitorial.

Mr. Morris said there has been no inquisition, and he would have no objections to the amendment if time could be allowed for such a course as suggested. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Sherman, from the Conference Committee, reported that the Senate had receded from the clauses in the tariff bill imposing a tax on tea and coffee.

The House then resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee of Thirty-three.

The first joint resolution voted on was the substitute of Burch and Stout, recommending to the several States of the Union, that, they, through their respective Legislatures, request Congress to call a convention of the States in accordance with the 5th article of the Constitution for the purpose of amending the Constitution in such a manner, and with regard to such subjects as will more adequately respond to the wants, and afford more sufficient guaranties to the diversified and growing interests of the Government and people composing the same.

The substitute was rejected—74 against 109.

Very much confusion prevailed throughout the proceedings, and it was objected that strangers on the floor tended to increase the disorder.

The Speaker made repeated efforts to restore quiet.

The first proposition of the committee was announced with the pending amendments. It was a joint resolution declaratory of the duty to recognize all constitutional obligations and recommending such action on the part of the States as will secure these objects.

Mr. Kilgore moved to lay the pending proposition with the pending amendments, viz: the Crittenden and Kellogg propositions, on the table.

HARRISBURG, PA., Feb. 26.

A private despatch from Washington confirms the report that John Bell will have a seat in Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.

A resolution was submitted to the Peace Convention by Mr. Somes, of Maine, to protect free speech and freedom of the press in the Territories, which was voted down by a small majority.

It is understood that the Government intends to institute proceedings immediately in the treason case of Gen. Twiggs. His movement has greatly damaged secession in the Border States. The Secretary of War and Gen. Scott favor immediate action in his case.

Gov. Boutelle and the delegation of New England men are here, urging Gov. Banks as Secretary of War.

Memorials, signed by all printers, publishers, and booksellers of New York and Boston, urging the appointment of Mr. Colfax as Postmaster General, were presented to Mr. Lincoln yesterday.

Mr. Van Wyck is still quite ill, but out of danger.

Sixty members of Congress have signed a recommendation, urging Thos. C. Theaker, member from Ohio, as Commissioner of Patents.

Caleb Cushing, by request, has given his opinion on the question of the legality of the acceptances issued by Secretary Floyd. He holds that, by authoritative decrees of the Supreme Court in previous cases of a like nature, the Government is liable for these acceptances.

Secretary Holt has addressed a letter to the Governor of Louisiana, demanding the restoration of the Government property seized in New Orleans. He denounced the seizure as an act of flagrant and atrocious spoliation. Gov. Moore returned the letter with the endorsement that when addressed in the usual language of official intercourse he would consider the matter.

Advices from Montgomery state that President Davis has tendered the position of Commissioner to Europe to Wm. L. Yancey, with powers to obtain recognition of the Southern Confederacy.

The hotly contested election in Georgetown, D. C., yesterday, resulted in the election of an anti-Democratic Mayor.

Secretary Floyd recently boasted that he had so distributed the army that no considerable force could be collected against the secessionists under two months.

Major Anderson writes from Charleston that no unusual preparations against him have been recently made, and some works already thrown up are apparently abandoned.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

The Conference to-day, in voting down the Franklin substitute, are in the same position as a week ago. Some Southern commissioners are much discouraged, but comforted by the assurance of those from other sections that they will endeavor to reconcile conflicting views on slavery, to-morrow.

The Senate portion of the Committee of Conference on the tea and coffee amendments have agreed to secede and recommend concurrent action, which will probably result in the passage of the whole bill.

Mr. Trumbull, on the part of the Senate, and Mr. Washburn, of Ill., and Mr. Burlingame, on the part of the House, waited on Messrs. Lincoln and Hamlin to-night, and furnished them with certificates from Mr. Breckinridge and Speaker Pennington of their election. They were formally accepted.

The first proposition to be voted on to-morrow in the House, is that of Burch and Stout, recommending a National Convention.

A memorial was received to-day, signed by all the Representatives of the New York Legislature, recommending Colfax for Postmaster-General.

Maj. Bowman has been appointed Superintendent of West Point.

Senators Seward and Sumner, the New York, Pennsylvania, and Indiana delegations, Judge Harris, Gov. Hicks, and others, called on Mr. Lincoln to-day. A number of Virginians also had an interview, and are highly pleased with the President elect.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.

The steamer Africa sailed to-day for Liverpool with 35 passengers; no specie. Col. Fremont was among the passengers.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 27, M.

River 9 feet 6 inches and falling. Weather clear and pleasant.

Reported for the Journal.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

The following is a synopsis of the resolutions of the Committee of Thirty-three:

Resolved, In the opinion of the Committee the existing discontent among the Southern people and the hostility among them to the Federal Government are greatly to be regretted, and whether such are with or without just cause or not, any reasonable constitutional remedy and additional specific and effectual guarantees of their peculiar rights and interests, as recognized by the Constitution, necessary to preserve the peace of the country and the perpetuation of the Union should be promptly and cheerfully granted.

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives, that all attempts by Legislatures to obstruct the recovery of fugitives from service are in derogation of the Constitution, inconsistent with the comity and good neighborhood that should prevail among States and dangerous to the peace of the Union.

Resolved, That the several States be requested to cause their statutes to be revised with a view of ascertaining if any conflict or tendency to embarrass the execution of the laws for the delivery of persons held to labor by the laws of any State and escaping therefrom, and urgently request that such enactments be forthwith repealed as required by a just sense of constitutional obligations and by a due regard for the peace of the Republic, and that the President be requested to communicate these resolutions to the Governors of the several States, requesting that they be laid before the Legislatures thereof.

Resolved, That we recognize slavery, as now existing in fifteen States, by the usages and laws of those States and recognize no authority, legal or otherwise, outside of such States, to interfere with slavery in deciding upon the rights of their owners or the peace of their society.

Resolved, That we recognize the justice and propriety of a faithful execution of the Constitution and laws made in pursuance thereof on the subject of fugitive slaves, and discountenance all mobs or hindrances to the execution of such laws; and that the citizens of each State should be entitled to all the privileges and immunities of the citizens of the several States.

Resolved, That we recognize no such conflicting elements in its composition, nor sufficient cause from any source for the dissolution of the Union; that we are not sent here to destroy, but to sustain and harmonize the institutions of the country, and that equal justice be done to all parts and to perpetuate its existence on terms of equality and justice to all.

Resolved, That the faithful observance on the part of all the States of all constitutional obligations to each other, and to the General Government, is essential to the peace of the country.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the General Government to enforce the Federal laws, to protect the Federal property, and to preserve the Union of these States.

Resolved, That each State is requested to revise its statutes, and, if necessary, to so amend them as to secure, without legislation by Congress, to the citizens of other States traveling therein, the same protection as is afforded to its own citizens traveling or sojourning therein.

Resolved, That each State is requested to enact such laws as will prevent and punish any attempt whatever in such State to set on foot the lawless invasion of any other State or Territory.

Resolved, That the President by requested to transmit the foregoing to the Governors of the several States, with a request to them, respectively, to communicate them to their Legislatures.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

The select committee of five on the President's course in receiving the commission from South Carolina, reported to-day. The majority report is signed by Dawes, Howard, and Reynolds. The committee regard the message itself as well as the manner in which it was treated by the President as among the most remarkable events of the extraordinary times in which we live. The committee cannot understand on what principle the President assumed to entertain or hold official communication with representatives from South Carolina, for it seems obvious enough that under the principle announced in his annual message the commissioners could be regarded in no other light than as engaged in a revolutionary effort to subvert the government, and it would have been the plain duty of the Executive to enforce the laws against any individual known or suspected of complicity in any movement of a treasonable character. They fail to see any circumstances justifying the President in entertaining diplomatic intercourse with South Carolina, except on the assumption that South Carolina was an independent power, and that the President, by according them an official reply, involved to some extent a negotiation with a rebellious State.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

Last night ex-Senator Bell, of Tenn., Judge Douglas, Mr. Guthrie, Mr. Rives, Gov. Hicks, and others, urgently appealed to Mr. Lincoln to interpose for a settlement. Their interview continued several hours.

The Commissioners from the Southern Confederacy are expected to arrive here before the close of the week. They are accredited to the incoming administration, and pending their efforts to negotiate nothing will be done calculated to destroy the public peace.

NEW HAVEN, Feb. 27.

The Republican State Convention met in this city to day and was largely attended. Daniel P. Taylor, of Brooklyn, was chosen President. E. K. Foster, of New Haven, was proposed for Governor. He handsomely declined and thereupon Governor Buckingham was unanimously nominated with great enthusiasm.

HARRISBURG, PA., Feb. 27.

The House passed a joint resolution giving $10,000 for the relief of Kansas.

XXXVIth CONGRESS—SECOND SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

Senate.—Several private bills passed.

Mr. Powell moved to postpone the army bill and to consider the Crittenden resolutions; lost—16 to 27.

The Committee on Patents reported, and the report was agreed to and the bill passed.

The committee on the tariff bill reported, recommending concurrence in the House amendments—striking out the duty on tea and coffee; agreed to and the bill passed.

The army bill was taken up.

Mr. Hale moved to amend, that no officer of the army except General Scott receive over $5,000 per year.

Mr. Powell moved to include General Scott; lost—9 to 31.

Mr. Hale's amendment was lost.

After further consideration the bill passed.

The Vice President announced the reception of communications from ex-President Tyler, President of a convention recently held in Washington, that that convention approved of the documents enclosed, asking Congress to submit the same to the Legislatures of the different States. The Clerk read the propositions which had been agreed upon, which are the modified Guthrie plan.

On motion of Mr. Crittenden it was ordered to be printed and referred to a select committee with instructions to report at one o'clock to-morrow:

Yeas—Anthony, Baker, Bayard, Bigler, Bragg, Bright, Clingman, Crittenden, Cameron, Douglas, Fitch, Foster, Gwin, Hunter, Johnson of Tenn., Kennedy, Lane, Latham, Mason, Nicholson, Pearce, Polk, Powell, Rice, Sebastian, and Thompson—26.

Nays—Bingham, Chandler, Clark, Collamer, Doolittle, Durkee, Fessenden, Foote, Greene, Grimes, Hale, Harlan, King, Morrill, Seward Simmonds, Sumner, Ten Eyck, Trumbull, Wade, and Wilson—21.

The Senate went into executive session.

House.—Mr. Kilgore's motion was negatived, only fourteen votes given in the affirmative, viz: Allen, Beale, Buffington, Carey, Elliott, Farnsworth, Grow, Kilgore, Potter, Sedgwick, Somes, Waldron, Washburn, of Wisconsin, Windom.

Nays—175.

Kellogg's substitute was rejected—33 against 158.

The Crittenden propositions, as submitted by Mr. Clemens, were rejected—80 to 113.

The question recurred on the first resolution of the series reported from the Committee.

Mr Sherman moved to table it. Disagreed to by 66 against 124.

Mr. McClernand asked that the communication on the Speaker's desk, from the President of the Peace Conference, be taken up. Objection was made.

Mr. Branch ineffectually sought to strike out the resolution, that it is the duty of the Federal Government to enforce the Federal laws and protect Federal property and save the Union of these States.

The resolution was adopted—136 to 53.

The joint resolution then came up.

Mr. Corwin moved to amend it so as to read, "No amendment shall be made to the Constitution authorizing or giving Congress power to abolish or interfere with the domestic institutions of any States, including that of persons held to labor or service by the laws of that State."

The resolution, as amended, was rejected—120 against 71—not being two-thirds.

Mr. Kilgore moved a reconsideration.

Mr. Bingham moved to table that resolution.

Mr. Hickman moved to adjourn till Friday. Lost. [Great confusion.]

Mr. Sherman appealed to the House to consider the appropriation bills, but without success.

At five o'clock the House adjourned.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 27.

The steamer Arizona from Brazos, the 25th, has arrived. She brings $115,000 in specie.

[For the Louisville Journal.]

In the selection of a gentleman worthy of the highest office in the gift of this city, our attention has been turned to Captain Wm. S. D. Megowan. No one is better acquainted with the financial condition of the city than he; while none, on account of his uniform urbanity and spotless integrity, would be more acceptable to the people. Will he run for Mayor? VOX POPULI.

SUICIDE.—Geo. M. Lloyd, an old and respectable citizen of Scott county, Ky., committed suicide on Sunday morning last by shooting himself with a shot-gun. The Georgetown Journal says that the deceased had, for sometime past, been suffering a derangement of the mind, produced by nervous sickness, which caused him to believe that he had been accused of some crime, and was looked upon by his friends as guilty and deserving punishment. On Sunday morning last he ended this painful and erroneous reflection by taking his own life, using a shot-gun, heavily charged, placing the muzzle near the nipple of the left breast, and discharging the entire contents into his body. After the discharge he never spoke, and died in a few moments. He had ever been regarded as an upright man. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, by whom his remains were interred.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—Mr. Wilford Melton, of Boone township, Harrison county, Ind., publishes the particulars of the mysterious disappearance of his brother, David Melton. It seems that Mr. M. went on board the steamer Silver Moon on the 9th of January last, and registered his name for the Tobacco Landing, at the same time depositing with the clerk $189, of which $65 was in specie. The following day he took out the paper, leaving the specie in the office. The next day it was discovered that the sash of the privy had been pried off. This raised suspicion that something had gone wrong, and enquiries were made, when it was found that David Melton was missing. This was near Hickman, Ky. His trunk, rifle, and money (sixty-five dollars and thirty cents) were restored to Mr. W. Melton by the clerk of the boat.

☞The Baltimore Sun has the effrontery to assert that "in the face of all that has been said to the contrary by people who know little or nothing of Baltimore, it is an orderly and well-governed city." Why it has been called "mob town" for years and has fairly earned the title. No one can have forgotten that four years since, when Mr. Buchanan passed through that city to assume the Presidency, stones were hurled at his carriage and such was the imminent danger to his person that he refused to show himself to the people from the entrance to Barnum's Hotel, but made his escape by a private door and left the town several hours before the arranged time.

ILLINOIS BANKS. — The Illinois State Auditor has been officially notified by the Bank Commissioners that the following banks have failed to make good their securities under the late call which expired on the 20th. The following, which include the nine discredited banks, are put into liquidation: Bank of Raleigh, Bank of Aurora, State Bank, American Exchange Bank, National Corn Exchange, Bank of the Commonwealth, Southern Bank at Grayville, Bank of Chester, Bank of Pike County, Bank of Quincy, Grand Prairie Bank, Farmers' and Traders' Bank, Rainbow Bank, Merchants' and Drovers' Bank, Citizens' Bank, and Morgan County Bank.

☞Secretary Holt has won golden opinions from all classes of citizens. The Springfield, Mass., Republican, a Lincoln paper, makes the following suggestion:

If the new President would show that he can give to us some of the power a party has conferred upon him, and make a popular hit, he will offer Kentucky a place in the person of Mr. Holt, who now represents her and the Union in the administration of Mr. Buchanan.

And the New York World says "Mr. Holt has saved the present administration, and if he could be connected with the coming one, his continuance in his present position would add greatly to the strength of Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet. Mr. Holt must perceive that there is not enough of the Democratic party left "to do to tie to."

ATTEMPTED INCENDIARISM. — The Corydon (Ind.) Argus states there was an apparent attempt to burn the public offices of Harrison county on Thursday night. Quantities of shavings and paper, partially burned, were found on the steps leading to the Auditor's and Treasurer's offices and the step and weather-boarding had been in flames, but had become extinguished. No clue has been obtained to the perpetrator.

A RECEPTION BANQUET TO EX-GOV. BANKS AND LADY.—A grand railway banquet and festival, given to compliment Ex-Gov. N. P. Banks and lady, is announced to take place at the Briggs House in Chicago, on Thursday evening of the present week.

☞Two years ago J. J. McDevitt bought a farm in Oldham county, Ky., containing 167 acres. He sold last month 117 acres of it, realizing a clear profit on the part sold of $1,100. This shows that Kentucky is not afraid of disunion.

PRESENTATION.—Fred. Hunt, Esq., the local Nestor of the Cincinnati press, was presented with a set of silver service on Saturday last, by a number of his friends. The present could not have been more worthily bestowed.

A MILITARY EDITOR.—Our gallant young friend Mr. John Foster, editor of the Georgetown Journal, has been re-elected Lieutenant of the Union Greys.

[Telegraphed to the Cincinnati papers.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.

The Hon. John Bell, of Tennessee, had a prolonged interview with Mr. Lincoln last night. It is rumored that Bell or Johnson, of Tennessee, is looked for the Cabinet, if either will accept.

Washington is becoming populous with office-seekers. Never were so many here before.

Mrs. Douglas having gracefully inaugurated the calls upon Mrs. Lincoln, the fashionable people are thronging her reception rooms at Willard's.

Lincoln's Inaugural will recommend no compromise measure other than the call of a National Constitutional Convention.

The Cabinet imbroglio grows exciting day by day. The antagonisms of the Republicans are being made manifest. The uppermost feeling hitherto, since Lincoln's arrival, has been that Seward holds the Administration in the hollow of his hand, and is master of the situation. This, however, is based rather upon the fact of Seward's having, from the start, had charge of the President's movements, than from any indication of the President's leanings in the matter. They have not been manifested in any authoritative manner.

Greeley, Giddings, and others are here working like beavers for what is known as the irrepressible wing of the Republicans.

Hon. John A. Gilmer, of North Carolina, is looming up prominently for a place, and Montgomery Blair, of Maryland, is only just behind him. Colfax is not so strong with Lincoln as Smith. Members generally attribute this fact to Colfax's leaning Douglas-ward in 1858. Caleb B. Smith is generally thought here to have a very strong chance for a place. Lincoln continues to see people very freely.

It is now settled, on the most direct authority, that Simon Cameron goes into the Treasury. This renders it certain that Chase does not go into the Cabinet.

Caleb B. Smith is considered booked for the War Department. Greeley has been intensely active to day—but his people are despondent to-night. Thurlow Weed arrived again this evening.

A strong pressure is making to induce Secretary Holt to accept the nomination for the Supreme Bench, if Black is withdrawn. This is said to be the only nomination for that position which has the slightest chance for confirmation.

DAILY REVIEW OF THE MARKET.
OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL,
THURSDAY, February 28, 1861.

Yesterday was another dull day in the money market. Money matters are wholly unchanged, there being but little demand for money, and less disposition to supply the demand that exists. We continue to quote Eastern exchange at ½ ₩ cent. premium, and New Orleans at ¼@⅜ premium. There was more activity in the general market, with comparatively large sales, though no change in rates. There were considerable transactions in the provision market at old rates.

FLOUR AND GRAIN.—Decidedly more active. Sales 825 bbls flour at $4 55@5 75, 2,000 bushels wheat at $1@1 10, 1,000 bushels corn at 37c, sacks included, and 500 sacks mixed corn at 47c, 800 sacks oats at 35c, sacks included, 500 bushels choice barley at 85c.

BUTTER AND CHEESE.—Unchanged; sales 500 lbs butter at 16c, and 40 bxs cheese at 8¼@9c.

WHISKY.—Sales of 161 bbls at 14¼@14½c.

GROCERIES.—Firm. Sales of 41 hhds sugar at 6¾@7¼c, 50 bbls molasses at 32c, 50 half-bbls molasses at 35c, 62 bbls sugar at 9¼@10½c, 115 bags coffee at 13½@14c.

PROVISIONS.—More active. Sales 565 bbls mess pork at $17, 218 bbls country mess pork at $16 75, 16 tcs lard at 9¼c, 49 casks bacon at old rates, 20,000 lbs country bacon from wagon at 6½c for shoulders, 8¼c for hams, 9¼c for clear sides.

TOBACCO.—Sales yesterday of 82 hhds: 1 at $1 70, 10 at $3@3 70, 20 at $3 85@3 80, 9 at $4@4 80, 7 at $5 15@5 95, 15 at $6@6 90, 6 at $7@7 65, 3 at $8@8 50, 4 at $9@9 85, 2 at $10@10 25, 2 at $11@11 50, and 1 at $13.

The Cincinnati Commercial of yesterday says:

Provisions have moved without excitement during the week, on a moderate shipping demand; but little having been done in the way of shifting stocks in the local trade. To-day there was a fair business in bulk meat, bacon, and mess pork, resulting in liberal sales of each, over 200 hhds bacon, 500 bbls mess pork, and nearly 250,000 lbs bulk meat. Bacon was sold at 7¼c for shoulders, 9¼c for sides, 10¼c for clear sides. Mess pork at $16 90, and bulk meat at 6¼, 8¼ to 8¾c for sides. These figures are hard to repeat now, particularly those on bacon and mess pork. Lard is held at 9¾ to 9¾c, though nothing of consequence appears to be doing, and purchases could probably be made for 9½c. The shipments of all articles have been fair for the week. The exports of bacon from New York, for the season to the 2d, amount to 15,023,753 lbs against 5,177,471 lbs same time in 1860. Of lard the exports were 17,672,753 lbs, against 2,524,354 last year.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27, P. M.

Cotton active; sales 4,000 bales at 11¾c for middling uplands. Flour—No important change, $5 15@5 25 for superfine Western, $5 30@5 50 for common to medium extra Western, $5 50@5 60 for shipping brands, closing heavy for common brands. Whisky steady at 18c. Wheat dull and unchanged; shippers, in view of high rates of freight, are unwilling to operate, except at a decline of 2@3c. Rye steady. Barley firm and more active. Corn heavy and about 1c lower, at 66@66½c for old mixed Western in store, 69½@64c for new mixed Western, 62@66c for new Southern yellow, 70@75c for white Southern. Oats heavy and lower; sales at 35@35½c. Pork firmer but quiet; sales 200 bbls at $17 25 for mess, $12@12 25 for prime. Cut meats steady, with good demand. Bacon dull and heavy. Lard steady.

Coffee quiet and steady; Rio 11¼@12¼c, Maracaibo 13½c, and Java 16@16½c. Sugar is in moderate demand and firm; Cuba 4¼@5¼c, Havana 6¾c. Molasses dull; New Orleans 31@33c, new crop Cuba Muscovado 21@23c, new crop Porto Rico 33@34c.

Beef is in better demand and has advanced ¼c and prices range from 5@6c to 8½@9¾c, the latter for prime. Mutton has advanced 50c ₩ head. Stocks in fair demand at 1¼@6¼c.

Stocks higher. Cleveland and Toledo 30, Illinois Central scrip 84, Hudson 46½, Erie 34¼, New York Central 78⅜, Pacific Mail 87¼, Illinois Central bonds 95¼, Missouri 6's 67¼.

CINCINNATI, Feb 27, P. M.

Fair demand for flour, partly for export; sales of 2,000 bbls at $4 55@4 60 for superfine, $4 70@5 for extra, and $5 25 for extra family flour. Whisky has advanced to 15c but closed dull. No change in grain. Wheat $1 02 for prime red and white. Corn firm at 31@34c. Oats 27½c. No change in barley or rye. Good demand for mess pork; sales of country at $17. Bacon firm at 7¼c, 9¼@10¾c. Bulk meats held more firmly without change in prices. Lard dull and unchanged. Groceries active; 350 hhds sugar sold at 5¼@7¼c; 200 bags coffee at 12½@14c; 400 bbls molasses at 30@31c. Money unchanged.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 27, P. M.

Sales of cotton to-day 10,500 bales at 10¾@11¼c. Flour dull at $5 25. Corn—mixed 54@55c. Pork dull at $18 50. Other articles unchanged.

BALTIMORE COFFEE MARKET, Feb. 23.

Stock of Rio Coffee, Feb. 16, 1861	12,533 bags.
Received since, ₩ bark "Esther"	7,100 "
Do. " " "Hercilia"	5,000 "
	24,633 "
Takeu for consumption	6,500 "
Stock of Rio this day	18,133 "
Sales	6,000 "

REMARKS.—We note a continued active inquiry, especially for the better grades of Rio, which have an advancing tendency. The market generally exhibits much firmness, and in consequence of the present agitation of the tariff question by Congress, purporting to levy a tax on future imports of Coffee, some holders have withdrawn their stocks.

We quote prime Rio at 13@13½ cents, good 12¾@12¼c, fair 11¾@12¼c, common 11@11½c, Laguayra 11@13c, Java 16½@17c. WHITE & ELDER.

Grey Eagle, N. O.

During the twenty-four hours ending at six o'clock last evening, the river fell six inches at this point, and there was last evening eight feet six inches water in the canal, six feet six inches in the steamboat pass, and five feet six inches on the rocks. The weather was clear, mild, and spring-like.

At Pittsburg at noon yesterday the river was falling, with nine feet six inches water in the channel.

The Mariner arrived from Memphis yesterday, and we are indebted to Messrs. Dravo and Taylor for valued favors. It will require some time to complete the contemplated repairs which will be made upon her, and she will not leave until to-morrow (Friday) afternoon.

Messrs. D. S. Benedict & Son received a despatch from Captain Spotts last evening to the effect that the Magenta passed that port yesterday morning for New Orleans with a fine trip.

The elegant Jacob Strader is the regular mail and passenger packet for Cincinnati at noon to-day.

The John Gault, Captain Bunce, arrived from Nashville yesterday. She is advertised to leave again for that port this afternoon. For further particulars consult Mr. Kinney Smith.

Thanks to the clerks of the Peytona, Messrs. Landrum and Woodruff, for favors.

The splendid new steamer Peytona, Captain Leyden, will leave for New Orleans at 5 o'clock this afternoon positively. There is no more complete passenger packet on the river than the Peytona, and no cleverer or more attentive officers than hers. Mr. Henry C. Landrum is the clerk.

The popular steamer Diligent, Capt. Cobb, is the regular coast packet for Troy at the usual hour this afternoon.

The Melnotte, Capt. McCombs, is advertised for Nashville to-day, and will leave at 12 o'clock.

The Kenton, Capt. Crooks, will leave for Memphis at noon to-day.

The Messenger, Capt. Kyle, is posted for Memphis at 10 o'clock this morning.

Thanks to Mr. W. C. Tichenor, of the Eugene, which arrived last evening, for a copy of the manifest.

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL

NATIONAL CONVENTION OF WORKINGMEN. The National Workingmen's Convention assembled in Philadelphia on the 22d. Delegates were present from the States of Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana, Tennessee and Ohio.

The following committee of thirteen were appointed to report a series of resolutions:

From Kentucky—Messrs. J. H. Williamson, George Atoslee, and J. B. Curry. From Maryland—Messrs. J. Hughes and W. H. Eda. From Pennsylvania—Messrs. P. Lowery, J. Blakely, W. C. Bradley, S. J. Ranch and B. Fulton. From Indiana—J. S. Cash. From Virginia—Messrs. T. A. Herrington and G. S. Young.

A permanent organization was effected by electing the following officers: President, S. W. Cloyd of Pa.; Vice Presidents, A. N. MacPherson, Pa., and John Pritchard, Va.; Secretaries, James Touchstone, Md., and S. C. Wood, Delaware.

On Saturday morning a resolution was offered by Mr. Wolf, of Kentucky, that a committee should be appointed to prepare a platform, or a code of principles, for the organization of the workingmen throughout the country.

The motion excited a long debate, during which a variety of views were expressed. Some of the speakers were in favor of an organization which would advance the interests of the workingmen, but they were unwilling to join in the formation of a new political party, as the resolution seemed to look to that course.

Other speakers were in favor of creating a political party, and of compelling men in authority to obey the will of the workingmen.

Mr. Lowry, of Philadelphia, announced himself as the representative of 52,000 workingmen. He further said that these 52,000 men would be satisfied with nothing but the Crittenden compromise as a settlement of our national difficulties.

It was finally determined to adjourn until two o'clock P. M., to receive the report of a committee appointed at the session on Friday.

CHARLESTON GOSSIP.—The Charleston correspondent of the New York Times, under date of the 20th, wrote as follows:

All and every merchant of Charleston is thus enrolled, and attends to his business as though all would be right. The men of families, of course, join those companies that are intended for the protection of Charleston—and, it is understood, are not to be called away on garrison duty, while the youth and flower perform herculean labors at the sand forts, and work for glory and a name. The solid men sail under the banner of the Phœnix Riflemen.

There is a company of mighty hard boys, who call themselves the "Richardson Guards," although one of them told me the other night that the R. stood for the "Rum Guards." They are all mechanics, strong, wiry, and muscular, and apart from their spreeing proclivities, are powerful men in every sense of the word. This company mean to form themselves into a "Forlorn Hope Guard," and breach Sumter on the floating raft. I have just returned from another visit to this curiosity, and found over one hundred men at work. All strangers are now forbidden access to it. The gun-carriages are alongside, ready for the 8-inch Columbiads. A day or two will develop its powers.

Early spring is coming upon us, and the peach blossoms throw their fragrance in the adjoining gardens. Green peas are also in blossom, and the rich strawberry is forming its cones, while apples of ordinary quality are worth a half-dime, and the oranges, usually so plenty, are worth ten cents a piece. The Habanese seem afraid of the Palmetto, and stay away. The noble steamer Isabel still remains at her wharf, unwilling to run the risk of running to Cuba under the Palmetto, and waiting for European recognition of the new Southern Confederacy ere she slips from her moorings.

A terrible rumor comes this afternoon that Major Anderson has the typhus fever. It is certain that an eminent physician of this city has been down to see him. If typhus attacks that garrison, the question will be settled very promptly. Disease in the Crimea killed far more than the sword or the iron hail.

A famous repeating cannon has been invented by a Mr. Blackburn, of Mississippi. It shoots five times, and is hailed as a bright proof of Southern genius.

I notice that one of your leading "Reporters" stars the Bank of the State of South Carolina. If he won't buy, I should think he would refuse doubloons. This Bank is the strongest in Charleston, and honors the drafts of the Executive in every branch. It cannot stop, and is perfectly sound.

The big raft still lingers on the ways at the foot of Pritchard street. I have just returned from a view of the monster. Stalwart sons of Africa are pinning railroad iron on its massive sides, and crowds of men, women, and children are gazing upon it. They say it will certainly be launched to-morrow. They said so a week ago.

My appeal for the women and children of Fort Sumter has not been in vain, if, as a friend tells me, they have raised $1,000 for them in the lavishly generous Empire City.

The inventive gentlemen of the North had better look out for their patents here. Unless new ones are taken out, they will stand a chance of losing a large share of their profits. Reprints of Northern copyrights will unquestionably be carried out by sharp fellows who care for the penny, no matter how it comes. The sewing machine interest will suffer terribly unless the parties interested grasp facts as they are.

ANOTHER THEATRICAL WAR IN THE EAST. Laura Keene, says the Philadelphia Ledger, appears to delight in the law, for no sooner does a manager in any other city produce a new play, than Laura claims it as hers, and demands damages from the manager for producing it. Manager Wheatley, sometime ago, had a tussle at law with Laura. How it ended we never could understand, though we read the Judge's charge over and over, for the purpose of comprehending it. Recently, in Boston, Manager Kimball has been served with a process for an alleged violation of Laura's copyright. The manager, we hear, denies that there is any such person as Laura Keene, and waits for the proof. Now, Manager McDonough receives a billet doux that he is an infringer upon Laura's rights, in performing The Seven Sisters without her permission and without compensation.

The Seven Sisters is a German play, called Satan and His Daughters, which has been adapted by a dramatist attached to Miss Keene's Theater for a New York locality. Mr. McDonough has taken the same German play, and a dramatist in his employment has adapted it to Philadelphia. The scenes here are all localized; the songs, puns, jokes, &c., are original, most of them Mr. McDonough's own production, and every night there is a variation in the scenes, words, songs, &c. We hear that his play enjoys copyright protection.

In this position of affairs, it will probably puzzle a Philadelphia lawyer, whose mental perplexity may be also communicated to a Philadelphia judge, to determine satisfactorily who has the best right to the play, who ought to pay damages, and whether the dramatic Dutchman, who originally produced it, and whose rights appear to be entirely ignored, probably because he is a Dutchman, may not have a claim upon both.

Noble Reply of a Chaplain—It is related of the celebrated John Howe, Chaplain of Cromwell, that being often applied to for protection by men of all parties, in those eventful times, he never refused assistance to any worthy person, whatever his religious views; until one day Cromwell said to him: "Mr. Howe, you have asked favors for everybody except yourself; pray, when does your turn come?" "My turn, my Lord Protector," said Howe, "is always come when I can serve another."

ITEMS.

At the close of the year 1860 there were in Europe 18,140 actors and male singers, 21,000 actresses and female singers, and 1,733 directors of theatres.

Know Thyself.

DR. J. H. McCANN is enabled to detect to a certainty the true condition and locality of diseases, by a simple and scientific method, without asking the patient any questions. Some profess to do this, yet are careful to ask some leading questions in order to obtain a clue to the disease. We do nothing of that kind, and have invariably given satisfaction. Consultations and examinations

FREE OF CHARGE.

DISEASES OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS treated on a new method of Medicated Inhalation and constitutional treatment. We offer you new remedies, entirely vegetable, which have proved a speedy and effectual cure in the following diseases, viz: Bronchitis, all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Disease of the Heart, Stomach, Liver, and Kidneys, Dropsy, Saint Vitus's Dance, Cancers, Scrofula, Chronic Ulcers, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Fistula, Spasms, Fits, Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Seminal Weakness, Skin Diseases, Rupture, Diarrhea, and, in short, all curable diseases. We are not a "cure all" doctor, and will undertake no case without a fair prospect of recovery.

FEMALE DISEASES.

Females troubled with Suppressions, Irregularities, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling of the Womb, Polypus of the Uterus, Tumors of any kind, Barrenness, all Urinary Diseases, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Nervous Debility, &c., will be speedily cured without the use of poisonous drugs or injurious or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling no difference what your troubles may be. I do not expect you to place yourself under my treatment unless you prefer it.

All communications strictly confidential. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves. Office 30 First st., between Market and Jefferson sts., Louisville, Ky. All letters addressed to our care, enclosing a stamp, giving symptoms and nature of disease, will receive prompt attention. Medicines sent to all parts of the United States. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. Address

JAPANESE SOAP!

JOHN F. GUNKEL & CO.'S
DETERSIVE AND ERASIVE
SOAP,
Louisville, Ky.

WE offer this Soap to the public with the full assurance that, if the directions given are carried out, it will save time, labor, and money. All we ask is a fair trial; then let it stand upon its own merits. Among other advantages of this over other Washing Soaps, the following may be mentioned:

1. This Soap is warranted not to injure the fabric.
2. But one-half the time and labor will be required to do a washing by using this Soap in preference to any other.
3. The clothes need but little rubbing, and, in most cases, no boiling.
4. For washing hands it is greatly superior to any common Soap, as it does not chap, but has a tendency to soften the skin.
6. It cannot be surpassed for removing Ink, Tar, and Grease Spots, also for cleaning Paints.
7. The superiority of this Soap consists in its not containing any excess of Alkalies, and the materials used rendering it more mild than any other known Washing Soap.
7. It is undoubtedly the best Family Soap extant, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction, or the money will be refunded.

☞All orders sent to the undersigned through the postoffice, or given our wagons, will meet with prompt attention. [s17 d&f] JOHN F. GUNKEL & CO.

I have just now opened and ready for sale or inspection the largest and most elegant stock of

China, Glass, and Queensware

Ever offered in this or any other city in the North or South. I have also on hand and intend always to have the best-selected stock of SILVER-PLATED WARE, CUTLERY, BRITANNIA WARE, WOODEN AND WILLOW WARE, and GAS FIXTURES in the country, and which I will sell at prices to suit the times.

Persons having old Chandeliers, Lamps, &c., can get them cleaned and made look as well as new at a very trifling expense.

I am also prepared to run GAS and STEAM PIPE into Buildings or Steamboats at the shortest notice.

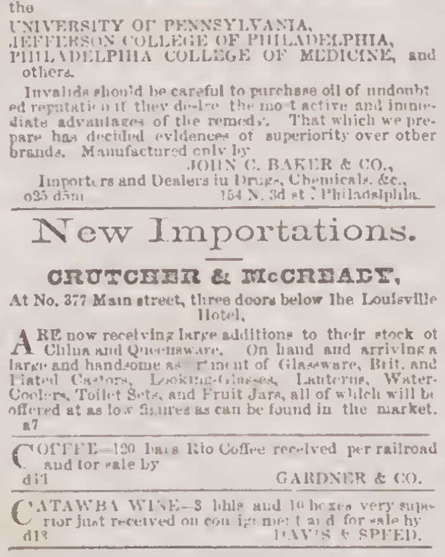
THE TRUE AND GENUINE



UNSURPASSED IN QUALITY AND EFFECTS.
BEING THE SWEETEST AND BEST PREPARED
ENTERED ACCORDING TO ACT OF CONGRESS,
BAKER & Co's
MEDICINAL TRANSPARENT
COD LIVER OIL.
OLEUM MORRHUÆ

Its use, if fairly tried, will soon restore the tone of the digestive organs, invigorate the blood, give general rotundity to the figure, and add energy to the mind and nervous system. Its value has been remarkably evidenced by its wonderful restorative powers, when ordinary tonics had been vainly exhausted. It affords nourishment to the body when no other can be borne, and furnishes the frame with fat in a truly remarkable manner.

For CONSUMPTION and BRONCHITIS,
For SCROFULA in all its developments,
For WEAKNESS, WASTING, and every form of DEBILITY, its curative properties are unrivalled.

It may be taken without disrelish by the most delicate patient, and retained without effort in the most sensitive stomach. Its superiority in this and other important characteristics of genuineness has guaranteed for it the commendation of the most eminent Physicians throughout the States; the written testimony of the faculty of the best medical schools; the Professors of the UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA,
JEFFERSON COLLEGE OF PHILADELPHIA,
PHILADELPHIA COLLEGE OF MEDICINE, and others.

Invalids should be careful to purchase oil of undoubted reputation if they desire the most active and immediate advantages of the remedy. That which we prepare has decided evidences of superiority over other brands. Manufactured only by
